NAT JORDAN DIES TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Had Been Seriously III Since About October 1st; Funeral Services Today

Nat M. Jordan, 56, and a familiar figure, around Roxboro, died at his home in the Club Lake community yesterday afternoon about 2 P. M. His health had been bad for something like three years and he had suffered acutely with a kidney and heart disease since October I of this year. He was carried to Duke Hospital about that time where he stayed until about two weeks ago, when he returned to his nome. His death, though a distinct shock to the community and to all who knew Mr. Jordan, was not unexpected. He leaves to mourn his passing his wife, Mrs. Mamie W. Jordan, and a host of friends. Funeral services were held this afternoon from Oak Grove Methodist Church of which Mr. Jordan had been a member for many years. His pastor, Rev. E. B. Craven, assisted by a former pastor, Rev. W. L.
