Kiwanians Go Into Huddle To Pass On The Annual Awards

Chicken Dinner Served By Baptist Ladies; Guests Included Two New Citizens

After Thanksgiving the next thing that our minds naturally turn to is Christmas. When we think of either, or both, the first thing that enters the mind is the eats that go with such an occasion. When we have finished the one, we mark time until the other rolls around in the course of events. The Kiwanis Club was in for a delightful surprise Monday night when it met in the Womans' Club room and was served a chicken dinner by the ladies of the was nice and tender, fried to just the right crispness, with all the accessories that go with a regular chicken dinner. It called to mind tend. the early spring when fresh vege-tables are just in and chickens are getting to that state when they are most delectable, the frying-size, Indeed some of the members were so far fooled that they inquired if the veget bles were not fresh out of the

After the meal had been disposed of in proper form, the club meeting was turned over to Furman Herbert, chairman of Public Affairs Committee, who went into a detailed discussion of the nature of the awards that will be presented to the citizen of the community who has done the outstanding service to the community-during the past year, and the Kiwanian who has contributed the most to the advancement of the community during the same period. Items, such as the nature of the awards, the method of choosing the from which contestant might be chosen, and other items pertaining to these awards were discussed and clarified, led by the chairman of the
