Ca-Vel Triumphs Over Hillsboro In Ten-Inning Thriller

Maynard Tripled And Scored On Briggs Single For Winning Run

Tied up at 7-all in the tenth inning Wednesday afternoon in the game between Ca-Vel and Hillsboro, Maynard hit one good for three sacks and scored on Briggs single to win the game for the local club.

Hillsboro started off in the first with two runs and scored three more in the fourth, with Ca-Vel crossing the plate twice in the same frame. Hillsboro scored again in the seventh, with Ca-Vel coming back in that inning to chalk up five runs, tying the score. It remained tied until Maynard broke it with the winning run in the tenth.

Monk started on the mound for Ca-Vel but was relieved by Crowder in the first after allowing five hits in the first third of that inning. His successor held Hillsboro to seven hits during the remainder of the game. Ca-Vel hit King for fourteen knocks, including two triples.

JALONG PLAYS DOUBLE HEADER
Jalong engaged Henderson in a double-header on the Henderson field Wednesday afternoon, emerging fifty per cent winner. In the first game, which Henderson won 13-6 Jalong used Gentry, Bowen and Clayton on the mound who received rather poor support from their teammates. In the second game, Jalong winning 2-1, Walters pitched, allowing Henderson only four hits and himself getting a triple. Dunn caught for both these games.

THE JONESES ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Dewey Jones, Mrs. Oscar Jones, Mrs. Jake Jones and Miss Maggie Jones delightfully entertained the Mt. Zion Ladies' Aid Society at Mrs. Jake Jones' attractive log bungalow Saturday afternoon.

After the devotional and regular business, a report from the leaders of both sides was heard. Mrs. Jake Jones reported four new members and $32.46 for the quarter. Mrs. Coy Holeman reported one new member and $40.56. As the result was a tie the group decided to have a meeting at the parsonage with Mrs. Stanfield instead of a party.

The attendance on this day was the largest in the history of the society. The Society is proud to have four members, Mrs. J. S. Timberlake, Mrs. Fannie Long, Mrs. Mollie Satterfield, and Mrs. Mollie Moore, who have passed the three score and ten. Their ages range from seventy two to nearly ninety. Three of these were present at this meeting.

During the social hour games were played. Mrs. Claude Moore was the winner. Later a delicious salad course followed by a sweet course and served by the hostesses.

Ransom Not Yet Paid Kidnappers

Willing to pay a modest fortune for the life of their son, had not been advised of the boy's whereabouts.

Activity of watchers at the Weyerhaeuser home, meanwhile, centered around attempts to learn the destination of two men who drove away in a motor car later in the afternoon.

One of the men resembled J. P. Weyerhaeuser, father of George, but identity of the second man was not known. Weyerhaeuser himself returned to the house about noon from another trip he refused to explain.

Woodsdale Route Two News Items

Rev. N. J. Todd filled his regular appointment at Bethel Hill Church Sunday morning. His text was "Parental Influence." He gave to all parents many thoughts for careful consideration. So little do we realize at times the value of our influence upon our children.

The Ladies Missionary Society of Bethel Church will hold its regular monthly meeting at church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. After this meeting the G. A.'s will hold their meeting.

Misses Evelyn Crutchfield, Emma Dean Rogers and Mary Elizabeth Merritt are at home for their vacation.

Miss Mary Joyner spent Sunday with her sister Mrs. R. M. Brooks of Garner, N. C.

Misses Nellie Mae Whitt and Helen Jones are leaving Monday, June 3, for summer school at Boone.

Mr. R. B. Griffin is spending a few days at his home, Raleigh. While Mrs. Griffin is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kemp Rogers, Freeman, Va.

Mrs. Eliza Boswell well known in this community, having lived here for many years died Saturday night at Durham. The interment was at Bethel Church cemetery Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Sallie Sampson, sister of Mrs. P. H. Fontaine, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jones, Salem, Saturday. The body was taken to Reidsville for burial Sunday.

Mrs. Bedney Gentry and son, Rull and brother, Walter Hayes spent the week-end with Mrs. W. A. Carter, Warsaw, N. C. Mrs. Carter is a sister of Mrs. Gentry and Mr. Hayes.

Mrs. D. E. Whitt spent last week in Charlotte with her daughters, Mrs. J. N. Hill and Mrs. W. A. Storall.

Miss Lillian Ford of Virginia is a Bethel visitor this week.

Messrs. Jack Crutchfield, John Duff Joyner and William Smith Humphries have returned home from Wake Forest.

Farmers are wearing a broader smile now since nearly all are about through planting tobacco and corn.

The blue mold in plant beds delayed them some.

We hope for the R. F. D. Carriers a very pleasant holiday Thursday. They need recreation. Having the same trips to make everyday, the old scenes

SOCIETY

MRS. PRILLAMAN ENTERTAINS
Mrs. G. I. Prillaman was hostess at a charming bridge party on Tuesday evening at her home on Main street. Attractive tallies were passed to three tables of contract. The living room was very attractive with red roses placed over the room.

After several interesting progressions, scores were added and Mrs. Martin Michie was awarded high club prize and visitors high to Miss Rose Woods. Both were presented with hose. An attractive hostess set was given to Mrs. Elizabeth Noell Masten whose engagement to W. E. Bowles was announced last week.

MRS. BULLOCK DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED WED. AFTERNOON
Mrs. W. C. Bullock entertained at a delightful party Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. A. Bullock on Lamar street.

Lovely arrangements of spring flowers including Dorothy Perkins roses, sweet peas, and chinese forget-me-nots used throughout the rooms in which guests were entertained.

Progressive bridge was played at six tables and at the conclusion high club prize was given to Mrs. Elizabeth Noell Masten, visitors high to Mrs. Jim Long.

A beautiful luncheon set was presented to Elizabeth Noell Masten.

MR. SHOTWELL HONORED ON HIS SEVENTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY
Mr. Alfred Shotwell was entertained at dinner in celebration of his 75th birthday by his children at his home north of Roxboro on Sunday, May 26.

A picnic dinner was served to about fifty guests.

Mr. Shotwell has eleven children, forty grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Not all of these were present, however, some on account of illness, were not able to be there.

We all hope for him many more such occasions.
