Roosevelt Begins Campaign-- 435 Congressional Candidates

ALSO WILL PUT OUT CANDIDATES FOR 2964 COUNTY OFFICES.

Decide to Put Up Candidate in Each District in Nation—Party Holds its Quarterly Meeting.

New York, April 18.—Candidates for the House of Representatives will be nominated on the Progressive ticket in the fall of 1914 in every one of the 435 districts of the country, it was decided yesterday by the National Executive Committee of the Progressive party. It also was decided to make an attempt to run complete Progressive tickets for county offices in every one of the 2,964 counties of the country.

Yesterday morning the committee gathered for its two-day quarterly conference in the Hotel Manhattan. Colonel Roosevelt was not there, but in the afternoon the committee went in a body to Oyster Bay to have tea with him. Practically all the day was consumed by hearing the reports of the committees on Publicity and Organization and of the Progressive Service, and by the trip to Oyster Bay. No plans were made, Davis said, other than those for the Congress and county tickets.

WINSTON-SALEM WEDDING

Miss Amy Carroll Coleman the Bride of Henry Minor Huxley. Winston-Salem, April 17.—Seldom, if ever, has a more beautiful marriage occurred in Winston-Salem than the one solemnized last night in St. Paul's Episcopal church, when Miss Amy Carroll Coleman, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Coleman, of this city, became the bride of Henry Minor Huxley, of Chicago. Rev. Henry Teller-Cocke officiated.

A brilliant assemblage of wedding guests witnessed the marriage, quite a number being from a distance.

Following the ceremony the members of the bridal party and the out-of-town guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Coleman at their home on Spring street at an informal wedding supper, after which Mr. and Mrs. Huxley left in an automobile for Greensboro, whence they set out on their extended wedding journey, after which they will be at home in Chicago.

ABOUT THE FOGLEMAN MURDER CASE

There have been many rumors but no material developments during the past few days in the case in which John Fogleman is charged with the murder of W. H. Tucker. It is charged Fogleman shot Tucker from behind, inflicting a wound which caused instant death. All of the negroes held as state's witnesses have given bond except Will Blunt who is in jail with Fogleman because of failure to supply a $250 bond to insure his appearance at the next term of court. Fogleman has held conferences with his attorneys, Judge W. P. Bynum and John A. Barringer but no statement with reference to his defense has been made.—News.

Everybody in Fourth Ward, both white and colored, please have all trash ready, we especially ask owners of vacant lots, to clean them up, so we can carry off the trash, if put near the road, where we can get it.

Follow the crowds, they are all going to the Dixie's big sale.

Innovation

TO BUILD VICE-PRESIDENT A HOME

Washington, D. C., April 17.—It has several times been suggested that President Wilson might do something to bring the Vice-Presidency its due dignity by inviting Mr. Marshall's presence and participation at the meetings of the cabinet. As the case stands now, the only actual experience which the Vice-President gets in the business of the government is in his capacity as president of the Senate, where his lessons are chiefly in parliamentary procedure.

Evidence of a growing realization of the neglect into which our second highest office has fallen is afforded by a bill just introduced in Congress by Representative Cullop of Indiana, who proposes the establishment of a vice-presidential residence at Washington. According to the prevailing system, the President receives a salary of $75,000 a year, has $25,000 a year at his disposal for traveling-expenses, and lives in the White House free of rent and has to bear only a small portion of the cost of maintaining the official presidential establishment.

The Vice-President, on the other hand, receives the same annual compensation as the members of the cabinet ($12,000) and has to provide his own quarters and defray all the expense of their maintenance. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall are now making their residence in Washington at a hotel.

DAUGHTERS CONFEDERACY

DEATH OF MISS QUARLES.

Miss Virginia West Quarles, aunt of Mr. J. H. Dobbs, died at the home of Mr. Dobbs on Lindsey street yesterday morning after an illness of several days of heart trouble. The remains were taken to her former home, Amherst, Va., on No. 44 this morning, accompanied by Mr. Dobbs and his sister. The remains were accompanied to the train by Rev. Dr. W. C. Tyree, N. W. Beeson, F. M. Pickett, Mr. Waller, R. B. White and C. C. Walker.

Deceased was a consecrated Christian woman and those who knew her were impressed with splendid qualities.

The Mayor and City Council will no doubt gladly take up the suggestion of our townsman, Mr. E. A. Snow and help make High Point the "Violet City." If any of our citizens want an object lesson in this, let them visit the fine violet beds in the yard of Mr. Henry Fraser.

ASK RECEIVER FOR HUDSON OVERALL CO.

Application for the appointment of a receiver of the Hudson Overall Company was filed in the office of the Superior court clerk yesterday by S. Clay Williams as attorney for Theo. A. Shaw & Co., of Chicago. The amount involved is $25. It is alleged, however, that the company is indebted to others in large amounts; that it is now insolvent or in imminent danger of insolvency. The petitioner asks the appointment of a receiver by the court to take all assets and disburse them among the creditors. The summons is made returnable June 2.

Marks Decidedly New Era

Crowds Through Big New Department Store Allen Bros. to Take Part in Formal Opening.

The formal opening of Allen Bros. large department store in the Jarrell building last night marked a new era in the history of the mercantile business of the town. The doors were thrown open at 8 o'clock and crowds of people swarmed in the spacious building and were greeted with strains of sweet music from Easley's Orchestra while the scenic effect of the interior was simply entrancing. On both floor the arrangement of the good was all that an aesthetic taste could require and the general effect under the splendid illumination was exceedingly effective.

Both for refreshments and flowers were tastefully arranged and presided over by pretty girls who presented carnations and served punch to all. The reception lasted from 8 to 11 o'clock, and during that time it was estimated that at least 2000 people visited the store.

The opening was a most successful one and the Allens received congratulations on all sides for the public spirit and the carrying out of larger idea in the business.

Road Inspection

The people of Thomasville have invited more than 100 farmers to take an automobile ride over the roads of Guilford Saturday. They have accepted and our friends in Thomasville desire owners of automobiles in High Point to go over and help carry out the program as there are not a sufficient number of cars there to accommodate the party. We are satisfied that High Point will help because all of us are interested in the proposed bond issue for good roads in Davidson. Those who will go will please be at Thomasville at 1 o'clock Saturday.

Increased Facilities

Dr. H. C. Pitts in refitting his dental offices, has realized the growth of his business and has decided to greatly increase his office force. He will have three chairs operated by himself, another experienced dentist and a lady assistant, the latter to clean teeth and give instructions in the care of teeth, especially to children. This is a feature which will be appreciated by his patrons. The office is also being refitted in up-to-date mahogany-aluminum furniture, the highest endorsement for sanitary effect.

There will be a meeting of Post D. Travelers' Protective Association of America tonight at 8 o'clock at the Elwood hotel for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention and electing officers for the ensuing year.

Prominent Citizen Christens High Point the "City of Violets"

In front of the residences on the principal streets, or all the streets, in this city there are living violet beds; and it is hoped that the town never will grow so large or so civilized as to prevent the growing of these tender, country violets right in its very heart.

They are in some way, a symbol of daintiness, freshness, purity.

They best become a maiden or a womanly woman, and they are a silent rebuke to a woman who is bad.

And one knows somehow, that a woman who goes out and fusses over violet beds and really loves the little human things has the right kind of a soul. There is no reason for saying this; it is another one of the just so things. All other flowers are, flowers, but violets grow and whisper in the innocent realm that can only be seen by a baby's eyes and are the first offering in the kingdom where love must give the right gift to love.
