

ONE BARE FACT

Is worth a dozen dressed-up figures of Speech

In our advertising we never "draw the long bow." "Word-painting" can't make clothes any better. We state the simple facts and state the facts simply. Telling the truth and giving the values is the "fast express" to public favor.

For example, we specialize in "HIGH ART" Suits, because we know they're most for your money. If they weren't, out they'd go and in would come better garments.

You don't know much about the structure of fabrics and the tailoring of clothes. You must buy on faith. Here your faith will never be misplaced.

Both as business men and as gentlemen we guarantee every garment. If any one should ever "go back on you," bring it right back.

First, know with whom you deal, and then deal with whom you know. That's the right rule in buying clothes.
