PERSONAL.

Mrs. Harris and family have returned to the Hill to live after an absence of several years' residence in Durham.

Mr. Towers will deliver lectures on the subject of confederation of the church of the Chapel of the Cross every Wednesday and Friday until March 30. During Lent daily afternoon service at 4 p. m.

Dr. Alexander, of Charlotte, has been here for the past ten days on professional business.

Mrs. Colton, of New York, is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Williams.

Everyone is glad to see Mrs. Whitehead here again and to learn that she has fully recovered from her late severe illness.

Mr. W. E. Lazenby, of Baltimore, Md., spent Sunday in Chapel Hill as a guest of the Zeta Psi fraternity.

We were glad to see "Judge" Eure on the Hill with the visiting committee of the legislature. We wish "Judge" the greatest success as a statesman but do not recommend excessive modesty as the means thereto.

Among the new students who came in after Christmas we note Messrs. B. Rush Lee, of Charlotte and Garnett Smith, of New York, both formerly of Davidson college. They have joined '94.

Mr. W. W. Vass, of Raleigh, who graduated with highest honors at Wake Forest in '92 and lately Governor Holt's private clerk, is here studying law.

Mr. O. H. Sumpter, of Hot Springs, Ark., has joined the law class recently. Other additions since Christmas have been Messrs. Biggs, Peschau, Vass, Justice, Holambe, Brooks, Cooper and Sprinkle, all of North Carolina.

The Glee Club returned from Oxford Saturday night. All were highly pleased with their trip, and say they had an elegant audience.

GENERAL NEWS.

I love my books more than my friends,
Their standing, wealth, good-looks,—
For when I weary grow of them,
I can shut up my books!

Hinkey has played end rush on the Yale eleven two years. Hinkey played end rush on the Phillips-Andover team.

Casper Whitney says, in Harper's Weekly, that Cornell is the leading college in aquatics in the country.

The law department of the University of Michigan supports over twenty mock courts, besides a supreme court and a United States senate.

The faculty at Boston University have decided to credit the editor of the college paper with seven hours work per week on his course and to each of his assistants, two hours.—Ex. [There is at present a movement on foot here to try to induce the faculty to allow work on the magazine to count as college work. The result of this movement is still in doubt.—Ed.]

Although Chicago University has had millions donated for specific purposes, she is at present in need of money to pay running expenses.

Of the three hundred and twenty-two members of the house of representatives, one hundred and six are college graduates.
