CHANGES IN THE CONSTITUTION OF THE S. I. A. A.

The constitution adopted at the Richmond meeting of the Southern Inter-collegiate Athletic Association was patterned after that of the Northern Football Association. Whether it would meet all the requirements of Southern colleges could not be foretold. It was feared that it might prove much more defective than it has.

It is well for all the members to keep constantly before them the tentative character of our constitution during this first year, and to be on the outlook for possible improvements and changes. We would suggest the following points as worthy of thoughtful consideration:

1. By whom shall the constitution be interpreted during the time between the meetings of the association?
2. Should there not be some provision for polling the colleges and securing votes for the immediate settling of vexed questions?

3. Would it not be best to have a committee of alumni to decide upon the eligibility of players?

4. Should not the schedule of games for the northern and southern section be arranged on the same plan?

5. Ought not the playing years of members to be limited to four?

6. What is meant by challenging "specifically?"

7. There should be some provision for filling vacancies in the offices.

8. Ought we to insist on a unanimous vote before a college can be admitted to the Association?

9. Should we not have a permanent committee on rules?

Mr. H. B. C. Nitze, Assistant State Geologist in charge of coal and iron, during the past week delivered a series of three lectures to the second year students in geology on the following subjects: "Varieties of Iron Ores—Their Chemical and Mechanical Impurities," "Relative Costs of Iron Ores and Structure of Ore Deposits," and "The Geological and Geographical Distribution of Iron Ores."

The whole series was very interesting and well attended by many who were not members of the class. The University is pleased to have such an expert speak to one of its class on a subject of such vital importance to our State.
