

THE GAME WITH OAK RIDGE.

The fourth game that our team has played this year, came off Saturday last, with Oak Ridge at the University Park. For the first time in twelve years the Oak Ridge team was shut out. From the start the game was one sided, and the team that last year gave us so much trouble soon showed their inferiority to our team in every respect. Smith who pitched for Guilford College, occupied the box for the visitors, while Stafford held down the other end of the line. Oldham and Kenan were the battery for the University. The game was called at 2:30, with Oak Ridge in the field.

First inning, Robertson was sent to the first on balls. Oldham out on pop fly to Jessups, Robertson stole second, and Devin took first on balls. Robertson thrown out at third, by Smith, Oldham out on pop fly to Smith. Stanley thrown out on first by Stafford.

Oak Ridge to the bat, Johnston out at first by Stanley. Smith out to Robertson on fly. Oldham goes out at second by Stafford's hit to Stanley.

Second inning.—Busbee out first, by Jessups. Moye to first on base hit. Mason strikes out. Kenan takes first on dead ball. Robertson knocks fly to right fielder. Moye left on third. Kenan second. Jessup steps in the box for Oak Ridge, drives a fly to Stanley and is out. King hits, once, twice, thrice and goes to the bench. Hampton knocks a hot grounder to Mason who picks it up beautifully and throws him out at first.

Third inning.—Oldham base hit. Devin makes base hit, sending Oldham to second. Oldham goes to third on Stafford's passed ball. Devin to second. Gray knocks a fly to Jessup, who lets it slip through his hands. Oldham scoring on his error. Stanley strikes out. Busbee pops a fly to second, and goes out. Moye goes to first on hit. Devin is thrown out at home plate by Jessup. Oak Ridge puts Stafford, W. in front of Kenan, and he reaches first on base hit. Jones strikes out. Kenan throws Stafford out at second. Johnston takes first. Smith knocks a ground ball to Stanley, who tosses him out at first.

Fourth inning.—Mason hits a liner through the Oak Ridge short stop's legs, and goes to first, steals second on Stafford's passed ball and scores on Kenan's base hit. Robertson puts the ball to short stop who throws him out at first. Oldham knocks a liner to left fielder, who drops it, and Devin knocks a shy ball to second base, putting the side out.

Ogburn goes to the bat, and knocks a fly to Moye. Stafford follows suit. Jessup makes a hit, and King pulverizes the air three times, and retires the team.

Fifth inning.—Gray takes first on a grounder which skips through the short stop's legs, he starts to second, Stafford throws wild and Gray reaches the home plate while the centre fielder is throwing the ball. Stanley feels all around for the ball and goes to the bench on three strikes and out. Busbee reaches a safety, gets to first and scores on Mason's two bagger. Mason takes third on error of right fielder. Kenan gets first on balls, makes for second, Stafford unlooses himself and throws the ball to the centre field fence instead of second base. Mason and Kenan add two to the score, which stands University North Carolina 6, Oak Ridge 0. Robertson knocks to short stop who throws him out at first. Hampton takes the bat and knocks a hard ground ball to Mason who picks it up beautifully and throws him out at first. Stafford W. goes out on a foul to Oldham. Jones, swipes the atmosphere thrice and is out.

Sixth inning.—Oldham goes to first on base hit, centre fielder throws while Oldham makes second. Devin knocks to second, who throws him out at first. King pitches a ball over the back stop and Oldham covers the plate. Gray reaches first on a fly to Ogburn who drops the ball, Gray steals second, Gray goes out at third on Stanley's hit to right field. Stanley goes to third on wild pitch of King. Busbee takes his base on balls. Stanley and Busbee score on Moye's base hit. Mason goes out on first by Stafford. Johnson hits the ball a terrible lick, but Mason pitches it up gracefully and hands it across the diamond to Devin, and Mr. Johnston is out. Smith knocks a poy fly right field and Busbee catches him out. Ogburn knocks a foul to Devin and retires the side.

Seventh inning:—Kenan puts a slow ball to short stop who throws it four feet above the first baseman's head. Kenan makes first. Robertson knocks a fly to short stop who lets it pass. Kenan takes second. Oldham makes a beautiful hit to centre field, bringing in Kenan and Robertson, on error of centre fielder who throws it way over the catcher's head. Oldham reaches second, but is thrown out while trying to steal third. Devin pops a fly up and Smith catches it. Gray places the ball in the short stop's hands, who by way of variety catches it. Stafford goes to the bat for Oak Ridge and strikes the ball terribly. Stanley picks it up, and throws him out at first. Jessup knocks to Mason who throws him out at first. King knocks a fly up in the air, Oldham catches it, half way between the plate and the pitcher's box.

Eighth inning.—Stanley knocks an easy fly to Smith and goes out. Busbee takes first on balls. Moye lines the ball to first, who puts him out. Mason knocks a high fly to left fielder who makes a beautiful muff. Busbee scores on his error. Kenan takes first on base hit. Robinson knocks a two bagger, Mason and Kenan scoring. Oldham knocks a liner to center field who makes a pretty catch, putting the side out. Haughton bunts the ball to Kenan who throws him out at first. Stafford, W. hits a high fly to Robertson who promptly takes it in. Jones goes out at first on a little grounder to Kenan.

Ninth inning.—Devin thrown out at first by second base. Gray hits to right fielder and Stanley puts the side out by a fly to second.

This is the last of the ninth inning and if Oak Ridge does not want to be whitewashed, something must be done. Johnston takes the bat, and hits a high fly to center field, it looks as if it will go over the fence, every one is in a state of expectancy, Bobbie Robertson gets right up against the fence and when the ball falls it is in his hands; and Oak Ridge feels a shade shaken but nothing daunted Smith goes to the bat, and is put out quickly by a foul fly by Devin. Ogburn follows suit and Devin catches him out, and for the first time since Oak Ridge has had a team, it is goes eggd.

The features of the game was the brilliant playing of Mason, and Robertson surprising catch in the ninth inning.
