

THE TAR HEEL.

VOL. I.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, N. C., APRIL 27, 1893.

NO. 10.

THE TAR HEEL.

A weekly paper published at the University of North Carolina, under the auspices of the University Athletic Association, devoted to the interests of the University at large.

Issued every Thursday morning. It will contain a summary of all occurrences in the University and village of Chapel Hill.

Space will be assigned for the thorough discussion of all points pertaining to the advancement and growth of the University.

A brief account each week of the occurrences in the amateur athletic world, with especial attention to our own athletic interests, and progress in Football, Baseball, Tennis, etc.

All society news, personals and every subject of interest both to the students and citizens of the village, will be treated each week.

The columns will be open to discussion on all appropriate subjects with an endeavor to do full justice to everyone. The chief and his assistants will decide as to appropriateness of articles--no anonymous articles will be accepted without authors name being known to the chief, which will be in confidence, if desired.

Advertisers will note that this is the best, quickest, and surest, means by which they can reach the students. For notes see or write "Business Manager of TAR HEEL," Chapel Hill, N. C., or drop him a card and he will call.

W. L. TANKERSLEY & CO.,

FANCY GROCERIES,

Confectioneries, Fruits, Cigars, Tobacco,
&c., &c.

OUR YOUNG ALUMNI.

Jule H. Little, '98, is with O. P. Heath & Co., Cotton Brokers, Charlotte, N. C.

Wm. Little, '88, is engaged in the practice of law, Charlotte, N. C.

A. W. Long, '84, formerly Professor of English in Trinity College, N. C., and Wofford College, S. C., has a fellowship at Harvard this year.

Chas. C. McAlister, '91, is in the cotton mill business, Ashville, N. C.

W. H. McElwee, '85, is engaged in the manufacture of tobacco at Statesville, N. C.

R. B. McLaughlin, '88, is rapidly rising as a lawyer, at Statesville, N. C. He represented his District in the last General Assembly, as a member of the Senate.

Frank H. Beall, '92, is raising blooded stock on his farm, at Linwood, N. C.

The late issue of the University Magazine, of New York, contained an account of Judge Augustus Van Wych, '68, with a short sketch of his life. Judge Van Wych is a prominent lawyer of Brooklyn, N. Y., and is Judge of the Brooklyn city court.

David Schenck, '88, is associated with his father, Judge David Schenck in the practice of law, at Greensboro, N. C.

H. W. Scott, '90, is another of our young alumni who is engaged in the manufacture of cotton, he has charge of a mill at Graham, N. C.

The Lynchburg, Va., papers of the 26th give an account of the marriage of O. D. Batchelor, '88, to Miss Maude Watts of Lynchburg. The TAR HEEL extends congratulations, and wishes for the happy couple a long life of joy. Mr. Batchelor is very pleasantly remembered here. He was a student of high standing and in his Senior year, won the Willie P. Mangum medal.

Prof. Joseph Swain, of Leland University, accepts the presidency, of Indiana University, from which Dr. J. M. Colter has resigned to accept the presidency of Lake Forest University.

PERSONAL.

B. Rush Lee, '94, has returned from a visit to his parents.

Mr. H. B. Hitze, of the state Geological Survey, has gone to Washington, S. C.

Chas. Mangum, '91, who has taken such a high standing at Jefferson College has returned home.

Tom Lighter, '94, paid us a pleasant visit last week.

Walter Murphy and J. Crawford Biggs of THE TAR HEEL, were down to see the Wake Forest game Friday.

Our congenial friends, Tommy and Jerry Bellezzer, have opened a dancing class in Raleigh.

Van Ness, of Charlotte who has been doing the photographic work of the University has gone.

We are glad to see Reid Russell, med., back. His father is very much better.

Gaither, '93, has been honored by an election to the jerry gobblins.

The Misses Badger of Raleigh who has been visiting at the charming home of Dr. Alexander, left Tuesday.

Prof. C. W. Toms, '89, of the Durham Graded Schools, was here last Friday as one of the Phi Society.

Dr. Thos. Hume, Jr., has been invited to deliver an address in Wilmington before a select audience. This is quite a compliment to the University and the Doctor, as he takes the place of Mr. Watterson, who was to have made his famous address.

Mr. A. T. Hill, of Kinston, was here Friday night as committeeman in Phi Society.

Thos. R. Foust, '92, has been elected Asst. Prof., in mathematics, vice Burt Shaw, '90, who will not be back next year.

Profs. Chas. D. McIver, Martin H. Holt, Eugene Armfield constituted the committee, for the Dialectic Society Friday.

E. M. Armfield, '88, now cashier of the High Point National Bank, paid his alma mater a visit last week, while here he was the guest of the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity.

Messrs F. M. London and F. C. Williams, of Pittsboro were here Friday as guests of A. H. London, '96.

L. J. Kirkland, '84, has been on the Hill, for a few days, visiting his father, our postmaster, and selling goods for the Durham Supply Company.

J. M. Anderson, '89, was on the Hill a few days since.

Dr. Winston, has been to Spartanburg, S. C., where he went to deliver an address at the laying of the corner stone of Converse College.

Mr. Wm. A. Devin, and Mr. E. P. Willard have been honored by election to Gim ghoul's.

Drs. Whitehead and Venable took in the game with Wake Forest.

Last Tuesday night Mrs. Alexander gave a delightful dance in honor of Misses Kate and Janette Badger of Raleigh. The following gentleman from the University attended: Messrs. Boyden, Perschall, Murphy Vass, Ellis, Patterson, Andrews and Robertson.

Dr. Battle, left hurriedly Saturday night for Lilesville where his brother Dr. William H. Battie is quite sick.

The contests for the Society medals on last Friday night resulted as follows: In the Philanthropic Society the debater's medal was awarded to Mr. W. P. Wooten, '93, and the declaimer's to Mr. H. H. Horne, '94. The judges in the Phi contest were Dr. J. L. Carroll '63, of Chapel Hill, C. W. Toms, '89, of Durham and A. T. Hill, '82, of Kinston. In the Dialectic Society the debater's medal was awarded to Mr. E. M. Wilson, '93, the declaimer's to Mr. M. B. Aeton, '96. The judges in the Di contest were, Prof. Chas. D. McIver, of '81, of the State Normal College, Prof. Martin H. Holt of Oak Ridge Institute and E. M. Armfield, '88, of High Point.

"I'd follow you e'en to the ends of the earth,
"I'd defend your life with my blood."
"All right," said the girl as her hat flew off,
"Just chase yourself out there in the mud."

—U. of M. Daily.