

THE TAR HEEL.

VOL. I.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, N. C., MAY 4, 1893.

NO. 11.

THE TAR HEEL.

A weekly paper published at the University of North Carolina, under the auspices of the University Athletic Association, devoted to the interests of the University at large.

Issued every Thursday morning. It will contain a summary of all occurrences in the University and village of Chapel Hill.

Space will be assigned for the thorough discussion of all points pertaining to the advancement and growth of the University.

A brief account each week of the occurrences in the amateur athletic world, with especial attention to our own athletic interests, and progress in Football, Baseball, Tennis, etc.

All society news, personals and every subject of interest both to the students and citizens of the village, will be treated each week.

The columns will be open to discussion on all appropriate subjects with an endeavor to do full justice to everyone. The chief and his assistants will decide as to appropriateness of articles--no anonymous articles will be accepted without authors name being known to the chief, which will be in confidence, if desired.

Advertisers will note that this is the best, quickest, and surest, means by which they can reach the students. For notes see or write "Business Manager of TAR HEEL," Chapel Hill, N. C., or drop him a card and he will call.

WASHINGTON AND LEE VS UNIVERSITY.

LEXINGTON, VA. Apr. 29, '92.

Just after dinner a heavy rain set in and hopes of a game sank; but soon it faired off and was a pretty evening but with slightly wet field.

Maxwell first took the stick for W. & L. and drove a base hit by pitcher. Tried to steal second and Oldham caught him way off. Adams then out on fly to catcher. Goode took first on balls; but Oldham nailed him when he tried to steal second.

Then Robertson to the bat for the University and smashed a hot one to short, where it was fumbled and left him safe on first. Oldham next struck out, but catcher missed it. Devin then took the stick and knocked a hot one through second base man when Robertson scored the first run. Third baseman then made an error on Gray's grounder, and put Gray on first with Oldham on third. Busbee then out on fly to third and Oldham scored on the throw in. Gray tried second and was thrown out. Devin scored on Moye's base hit and then Mason out from short to first.

Second Inning—Pratt lead off with a hit. McFarlan struck out. McFarlan, H. made a hit and things look a little dangerous. Dover hits to Gray who throws to third but Mason lets it go by, way down one of those long hills, and Pratt and McFarlan both score; but Dover stops at third when he might easily have scored. Harris then hits just in front of home plate and Oldham throws him out at first in time for Devin to throw back and catch Dover trying to get home. Stanley came in and was out on fly to second. Kenan smashed out a two bagger and Robertson brought him in with a similar drive. Robertson got third on error and attempted home on a block ball but the umpire did not see it and Robertson was out at the plate. Oldham then went out at first.

Third Inning—Lee struck out. Maxwell out to centre. Adams out at first by third.

Devin got first on balls. Gray same on error by second. Busbee struck out and then Devin, Gray and Moye scored on Moye's hit and fielder's error. Mason went out to left and Stanley was out on fly to short.

Fourth Inning—Kenan out on grounder to short. Robertson struck out mid great applause. Oldham hit safe. Devin followed and both went round on errors—especially by poor throws.

Washington and Lee seemed all to pieces—especially the catcher. Gray out on fly to catcher. With these nine runs Carolina seemed satisfied and made very little effort afterwards. Then too, the Virginia boys picked up and played a good game but could not bat hard enough to make the game very exciting. In the seventh McFarlan, A. D., hit a long fly in left centre for two bags but went to third on error by Mason or the umpire. Then H. McFarlan struck two strikes in the left box and just as Kenan was about to deliver the ball jumped across the plate so he could not see the catcher and caused him to make a "balk." Then there was some quiet arrangement by Capt. Busbee and the umpire called the batter "out for interference;" but let the man come in from third. This was their last run; as they were put out in one, two, three, order in eighth and ninth. Kenan and Robertson hit safe in eighth but didn't get around.

Kenan pitched and batted in fine style throughout the whole game, while Oldham's catching was perfect. He caught every man who attempted to steal bases and made several magnificent catches of foul tips that were way over his head and very swift. His fine playing and the splendid catches of Gray elicited rounds of applause.

The V. M. I. boys were out in full force and yelled most manfully for us. The game was beautifully played after the fourth inning but we had killed all interest by then.

The score was as follows:

UNIVERSITY.	AB	R	BH	PO	A	E
Robertson, c. f.	5	1	2	3	0	0
Oldham, c.	5	2	1	9	3	0
Devin, 1st b.	3	3	0	5	1	0

Total	31	4	23	71	9

Earned runs; Carolina 1, two base hits; Kenan, Robertson, McFarlan, A. D., stolen base, Moye; struck out, by Kenan, 3 by McFarlan, 2; wild pitch, McFarlan, 1; passed ball, McFarlan, 3. Umpire, Mr. Cobb. Our team objected to playing with an umpire connected with either institution, as the constitution of association forbids it, but the Washington and Lee men would not grant our request and we did not care to go clear to Lexington and not get the game. The objections were made on account of our law and not on personal grounds, for Mr. Cobb was both fair and prompt in his decisions. Some quite difficult questions arose, but he was both courteous and firm.

SOPH VS FRESH.

One of the most interesting exciting and hasty contested games ever played on our diamond took place, Saturday afternoon, between the Soph and Fresh classes, which resulted in a victory for the Freshmen by a score of 5 to 4 after 14 innings were played. From the eighth to the last half of the 14th inning not a run was scored. The following composed the Soph team: Graham, W. A., c.; Klutz, p., Steele, r. b., Shelton, 2nd b., Mangum, s. s., Northrop, 3rd b., Gates, J., l. f., McAlister, c. f., Horne, C. r. f. The following represented the "Fresh" class: Graham, E., c., Rankin, p., Van Landingham, 1st b., Gregory, 2nd b., Denson, s. s., Love, 3rd b., Syme, l. f., Ramsay, c. f., Peschau, r. f.

We learn from the Fayetteville Observer that that town has organized a Base-ball Association, backed by the best citizens of the town and they intend to put out a good nine this season.

The Chapel Hill High School nine defeated men chosen from the Fresh class Friday afternoon by a score of 10 to 7. Batteries for School, Mangum and Johnson. For Freshmen, Lyme and Guion and Rankin and Denson.
