DR. HUME IN WILMINGTON.

Dr. Thomas Hume returned from Wilmington Saturday, where he delivered a lecture on Shakespeare before a cultured and select gathering. The "Messenger" has the following to say of the lecture:

"A cultured and appreciative audience assembled last evening in the auditorium of the Young Men's Christian Association to hear Dr. Hume's lecture on 'Shakespearean Sidelights on Old English Life.'"

The distinguished lecturer was very gracefully introduced by Dr. J. Allirson Hodges, and for one hour Dr. Hume kept his audience intensely interested in one of the most instructive, chaste and beautiful lectures that our people have ever heard. The thorough and masterly manner in which he brought out the details of Shakespeare's great plays and his comparison of the English Character as Shakespeare knew it and as we know it at the present day, were fully enjoyed by the audience and gave a new and a clearer and brighter idea of Shakespeare's wonderful mind, superior knowledge and great influence. His sketch of the honor and life of the Elizabethan period was inimitable, masterly and enjoyable.

His illustrations and comparisons were so vivid and life like, that, at times the lecturer assumed the role of actor and left a pleasing and lasting impression upon his audience.

We hope that our people may have another opportunity of hearing this able scholar upon his favorite subject Shakespeare."

The Star's notice of his address was equally as complimentary.

DEATHS.

It is our painful duty to chronicle the death of Dr. Wm. Battle, which occurred at his home in Lilesville Friday night. He was a brother of Dr. Kemp Battle, and father of Mrs. Prof. Collier Cobb. To the grief stricken family we tender our warmest sympathy and condolence in this sad hour of their affliction.

The numerous friends of Mrs. Brown of Hillsboro will be grieved to learn of her sad death which occurred at the home of her father, Dr. Wilson, on Saturday night.

Mrs. Brown was a most estimable christian woman and her untimely death will be keenly felt by her large circle of friends.

The TAR HEEL offers its deepest sympathy to her husband and family in their sad bereavement.

Princeton offers to her undergraduates fifty dollars for the best college song with music.
