GENERAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION
University North Carolina,
Chapel Hill, N. C.

H. W. Ayer, Sect'y State Fair,
Raleigh, N. C.

Dear Sir:

In reply to yours concerning a football game with Wake Forest to be played on the Fairgrounds, Tuesday October 17th during the Annual Fair at Raleigh, I will say:

We will play Wake Forest on the following conditions:

1st. that a list of the players of each team shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by three members of the faculty of the respective institutions stating that every player is a BONA FIDE student pursuing a regular course of study and receiving no remuneration for playing so far as their knowledge goes, these certificates shall be handed to the Umpire and Referee before the game.

2nd. Neither Umpire nor Referee shall be connected with either institution as teacher, student or alumnus.

These are nothing but the ordinary terms of agreement between colleges and shall be acceded to by all.

The schedule of dates of the University games is being rapidly filled, hence it will be necessary for us to have an answer as early as possible.

Very truly yours
CHAS. BASKERVILLE,
Manager.

Without a Peer among College Magazines. Some Special Features for 1893-94.

1. The Great Schools of the World. A series of articles by students of Harvard, Yale, Oxford, Cambridge, Berlin, Göttingen, Tokio, West Point and Annapolis, telling of college life and experiences.
2. What Shall a Young Man Do? Papers on different professions by young men who have won success in their professions. The series begins with a paper on JOURNALISM, by Amos P. Wilder.
3. Undergraduate Work of Famous Men. Began in April, with an essay by James K. Polk, President of the United States, written while he was a student at the University of North Carolina in his Junior year. Others are to follow.
4. Valuable Historical Documents. Papers bearing on our colonial history will be published for the first time. Several eminent men are now at work upon the notes and annotations. Valuable letters from the Swain collection, with even more valuable annotations by a distinguished student and teacher of history will appear from time to time. Our Magazine is the only college paper quoted in Winsor's Narrative and Critical History of America, and it is taken regularly by the great libraries of the country for its historical articles.
5. The Better Schools for Women. A series of interesting papers beginning with old Salem Academy which has educated the wives and mothers of so many eminent men.
6. A Japanese Nobleman will contribute one or more articles on the Recollections of a Japanese Childhood and A Jap Boy's Impressions of America.

These are but a few of the special features which will make the Magazine valuable and interesting to men and women of intelligence everywhere; and no well informed North Carolinian can afford to be without its regular visits. There are also several departments of especial interest to all U.N. C. men. Subscription price, $1.50 Single copy, 25 cents. Ask your book seller for it, or address, THE UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE, CHAPEL HILL, N. C.
