AMONG THE COLLEGES.

The University of Leipsic is worth nearly $20,000,000.

The seniors at Princeton have voted to wear caps and gowns.

Over $80,000 has been subscribed for the Phillips Brooks memorial at Harvard.

At Vanderbilt the Chancellor is busy enforcing compulsory attendance at the gymnasium.

Students in the theological department at Princeton are not permitted to play foot ball anymore. Pity!

Eleven new instructors and professors have been added to the staff of the Johns Hopkins University.

The University of Virginia has 506 students enrolled. Poe and Garth are not as yet students, we've heard.

An annual prize of $60 is to be given at Dartmouth to the member of the athletic team standing highest in studies.

Two Chinese women have taken the examinations for admission to the medical department of the University of Michigan.

"Rube" Freshman (glancing over an Integral Calculus): "Say, I didn't know they taught music here."—Vanderbilt Hustler.

The University of Pennsylvania will offer among the college courses this year one designed to prepare students for newspaper work.

At Franklin and Marshal no man can become a member of the Glee Club or play on the foot ball team unless he presents to the faculty a written permit from his parents or guardians.

AT ODDS.

She was the dearest creature,
So dainty, sweet and charming,
With a way of breaking hearts
That truly was alarming.
Her loose love-locks were Venus' own,
Her smile was truly 'trancing;
The nymphs themselves would pause to gaze
With envy at her dancing.
But now, 'tis true, I love her not,
Though very hard I've tried:
'Twas all that horrid slipper's fault—
If it only had staid tied!
So I grant you that her foot is neat,
Her waist a mere suggestion;
But whether Dolly's stockings mate
Is still the doubtful question.

—J. C.

"Your figure petite is ever so sweet,
And there's certainly no getting 'round it."
Her adorer was scared, and hence unprepared
For her question meant more than she hardly dared,
But she coyly found voice to propound it:
"So my figure petite is ever so sweet,
Are you—quite—sure there's no getting 'round it?"

SATURDAY'S GAMES.

Princeton, 76; Wesleyan, 0.
Pennsylvania, 82; La Fayette, 0.
Yale, 28; West Point, 0.
Lehigh, 12; Annapolis, 6.
U. of Va., 28; Hopkins, 12.

There will be a meeting of the editors of THE TAR HEEL in Mr. Murphy's room Friday afternoon at 3:30. It is important that all the editors should be present. The editor-in-chief finds that it takes too much of his time to get up the whole paper, and must have the help of the associates to a greater extent in the future than he has in the past. An editor must be elected at this meeting to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Currie, and if the editors do not meet as requested the editor-in-chief will assume the responsibility of appointing some one to fill the vacancy.
