

My Latest Sweetheart.

My sweetheart is as moonlight fair,
Turquoise her eyes, spun gold her hair,
A beautiful fairy gay and bright,
Her eyes beaming o'er with mischief's light.
Oftentime she seats herself adown upon my knee,
Her curly hair upon my breast reclining lovingly.
My beautiful darling, blithe and gay,
Says she loves to find herself just that way,
So I love her and she loves me,
This nymph with her hair of gold.
Good people pray don't be scandalized—
She's only five years old.

Personals.

J. W. Canada, '96, offers his services as a coach in preparatory Greek.

W. A. Graham, '95, spent Saturday and Sunday at his home in Hillsboro.

Thomas E. W. Brown, ex-'94, has returned to the Hill and will graduate with '95.

E. F. Rollins, ex-'95, has returned after an absence of a year, to re-enter college.

Hugh H. Atkinson, B. S., '94, is working in chemistry for the Master's degree.

Miss May Harris, of Pitt county, is visiting Miss Mary Harris, on Cameron avenue.

F. A. Green, '91, now a prominent young lawyer in Durham, arrived on the Hill Saturday evening.

Henry Johnson, '90, who has been attending the Summer School of Law, returned to his home in Tarboro on the 7th.

Howard Rondthaler, '93, of Salem, one of the stars of the famous '92 Glee Club, was with us a few days last week.

Miss Blanch Martin has entered the Randolph-Macon Woman's College at Lynchburg, Va.

Prof. J. A. Holmes, State Geologist, attended the Inter-State Road Conference, Charlotte.

Thomas J. Wilson, A. B., '94, is doing post-graduate work in languages for the degree of A. M.

Miss Blount of Washington N. C. is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Small at the University Inn.

W. S. Myers, '97 was called home on Tuesday by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his mother.

A. Caswell Ellis, A. B., '94, who attended the Harvard Summer School, has decided to enter Clark University, for which place he left this week.

Hon. F. M. Simmons and family, who for several years, have spent the summer in Chapel Hill, left on the 6th for their home in Raleigh.

H. G. Connor, jr., '96, has been elected Sophomore editor of the Magazine from the Phi Society, vice R. H. Pittman, '96, who has not returned.

Mr. John V. Sherard, A. B., '46, of Goldsboro, an old alumnus, was a visitor at the University one day last week.

Mrs. W. L. Smith and child, who have been spending the summer at the University Inn, have returned to their home in Wilmington, N. C.

Walter Murphy, ex-'92, Law '94, arrived on the hill, Tuesday night. "Pete" as he is best known, is now a lawyer of Salisbury, and is much missed this year on the foot-ball team, on which he played as centre for several years.

Mr. J. T. Farrell, formerly of '90, has returned to the University after an absence of five years to graduate next June. He has moved his family here and is living at Dr. Wilson's.

Dr. John W. Kilgo, the new president of Trinity College, has been invited by the University Young Men's Christian Association to deliver a sermon to the University students in the college chapel on September 30th.

We were glad to see Victor Hugh Boyden, ex-'93, B. L. '94, a few days ago. He is now a lawyer in Raleigh, in partnership with Mr. Ed. Chambers Smith, ex-'86.

J. M. Oldham, A. B., '94, captain of the '95 base ball team, the coming champions of the South, has returned to college to study for the M. A. degree.

Dr. Richard H. Johnston, ex-'92, med. '92, captain of the '92, base ball team, paid his Alma Mater a visit during the first week of the session. He is now on leave from his work in Bay View Asylum, a city hospital of Baltimore, and went from here to his old home in Tarboro, N. C.

Miss Caddie Fulghum, who was on the Faculty of the Summer School for Teachers, and who remained here during August, doing some drawing for the Magazine, has returned to her home in Goldsboro. She will spend the winter in Paris pursuing her studies in art, and will contribute monthly letters to the Magazine.

Mr. —. —. Hartsell, left tackle on Trinity's (N. C.) '93 team, has entered the Law class, and will prove a valuable addition to the foot ball material.

Master Joe Martin has entered Webb's School, Bell Buckle, Tenn., and Master Henry Winston has entered Horner School, Oxford, N. C.

S. T. Honeycutt, '95, passed through Chapel Hill, last Tuesday, on his way home from Petersburg, Va., where he has been playing first base and right field in the Virginia State League, and made a great reputation. "Honey" will return to College after Christmas, and graduate in June.

Mr. J. T. Pugh, who received the degree of A. M. at the last commencement, will continue his studies in languages with a view to Ph. D., and act as assistant in Latin. It is to be very much regretted that he will not try for the foot ball team this fall. His play at left tackle for the past two years has been of the highest order and he will be greatly missed in the line.

Dr. Yates, presiding elder of this, the Durham district of the N. C. Conference, held his last quarterly meeting for the year here on Sunday the 9th. We much regret this is his last visit to us as presiding elder, he having served four years in this district, for his sermons were always enjoyed by the students.

Mr. Jas. C. McRae, jr., of Fayetteville, is another addition to our foot ball talent. He played a very good quarter-back on the N. C. Agricultural and Mechanical College team last season. A third contribution from another college is Mr. H. T. Collier, who played centre on University of Tennessee last year, and who is a ball-pitcher of very great ability.

Every student in college is deeply sorry that George Roscoe Little will not be back with us this year. During the three years that he has played on the 'Varsity team, he was the best tackle in the South, and he had been chosen captain of the '94 team. He graduated last June, and is now teaching Latin and English in the Atlantic Collegiate Institute, of Elizabeth City, N. C. James Crawford Biggs, valedictorian of '93, our crack right end of the '91 and '92 teams, who captained the St. Albans (Va.) team last year, has been elected in his stead. Should he decide to remain, we all feel confident that he will lead the '94 team to greater victories than any U. N. C. team has yet accomplished.

The Guilford College correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer, under date of Sept. 11, has the following to say about Mr. Edward M. Wilson, who graduated here in '93, and who last year won the Chas. G. Hill prize in History. "E. M. Wilson, '92, of Guilford, '93 of the University of North Carolina and '94 of Haverford College, Pennsylvania, has been visiting friends here for some days past. "Ed." is gathering his energies to leave for Union Springs, New York, where he will occupy the chair of Latin in the College of the New York Yearly Meeting of Friends."

The Asheville Daily Citizen, of Aug. 28th, made the following complimentary remarks about two University base ball players, Stephens and Stanley, who occupied the positions of pitcher and short-stop, respectively, on the Asheville team, during the summer:

"The first to leave will be Stephens and Stanley. George Stephens' work is so generally known and has brought him so close to base ball lovers that it seems almost superfluous to say anything further. He is a young man of splendid character, and this is the first reason for his popularity here. That is Mr. Stephens as a man. As a ball player he is deceptive, but only so long as he is in the box facing a batter on the opposing team. He has done his work well and it speaks for itself. Whatever his calling in life, he will fill it in a praiseworthy manner if the energy he puts into his playing be taken as a criterion.

As to Ben Stanley (or perhaps "Pat" as he is better known)—well, who could have so well covered the short-stop's territory as he? No game was complete without him and if the people didn't see him they asked for him. And he was always there, big as life. He has shown by his demeanor here that he is a young man who is bound to make a success of his life—he plays ball just that way. Courteous and friendly to all, he has become known by everybody and admired for his worth aside from his base ball abilities. As to his sprinting—ask the men from whom he has stolen so many bases this season. To Stephens and Stanley the people of Asheville will tip their hats in an adieu that carries with it the best of wishes."

Other N. C. Colleges.

All opening with enlarged attendances and bright prospects.

The Durham correspondent to the Raleigh News and Observer say:

"Your correspondent to-night asked President Kilgo what was the prospect for the opening of Trinity College to-morrow. He says there are many more boys at College to-night than were there last year at this time. He says the opening will be better than he expected. The Professors and boys are enthusiastic. A meeting of the faculty was held to-night to arrange a schedule for the coming session."

"The date for the inauguration of President Kilgo was to-night changed on account of unavoidable circumstances to Wednesday, Sept. 19th, at Stokes Hall. The address on behalf of the faculty will be delivered by Prof. W. H. Pegram, the address on behalf of the alumni will be delivered by Chas. E. Turner; that on behalf of the students by Plato Durham; on behalf of the Methodists of North Carolina by Rev. T. N. Ivey; on behalf of the board of trustees by Justice Clark."

The Wake Forest correspondent of the same paper, says (Sept. 5th):

"On yesterday, the day before the session opened, there was a larger number of students on the ground than ever before at a corresponding period. The number is 135. Today many more have come in, and the probability is that the first day's attendance will not be far from 200."

Guilford College opened on Aug. 21st with about the usual attendance, but the number has been increased almost daily since.

The session at Elon College began on Sept. 6th. The attendance is the largest for several years.

The State Agricultural and Mechanical College has the largest number of students in its history—

Greensboro Female College was the first female college to be chartered in the State, and the second in America. It has just had the finest opening in its history. The latest addition is a fully equipped and thorough School of Music under Prof. Parker.

Peace Institute, in Raleigh, has opened with an attendance much greater than that of last year. Its success is due in a large measure to the ceaseless energy of the principal, Prof. Jno. Dinwiddie. Peace now offers the most thorough and complete instruction in music inside our own State. She has a Conservatory of Music, at the head of which is Prof. Vernon Darnell, a young man from Durham, N. C., who has studied in New York and Germany.

The A. & M. College has changed its colors from pink and blue to brown and white.
