

Personal.

Dr. Winston left the Hill Tuesday on business.

Mr. D. A. White, brother of J. S. White, '96, spent Saturday on the Hill.

A. W. Mangum, '97, who has been sick for several days, is able to be out again.

Mr. J. H. Sneed, the popular clothing man from Durham, is at Roberson's Hotel.

Mrs. G. T. Winston has returned from an extended trip to her old home in New Hampshire.

Mr. W. H. Riddick, salesman for T. J. Lambe, the clothier, of Durham, is at Roberson's Hotel.

We regret to learn the illness of James West, '97, at the residence of his uncle, Prof. E. A. Alderman.

Mr. Clem. G. Wright, ex. '86, of Greensboro, a great friend and material benefactor of University athletics, is on the Hill.

Mr. J. W. Cross, of the firm of Cross & Lineham, Raleigh, is due here next Monday with his line of fall clothing.

THE TAR HEEL regrets very much that a letter from Rev. Mr. Towers bidding farewell to the students, should be crowded out of this issue. It will appear next time.

Messrs Bryson and Bridgers, who are to represent us in the Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament at New Haven, left Saturday. We wish them a pleasant and successful trip.

Rev. Frederic Towers and family left yesterday for their new home in Cambridge, Mass., where Mr. Towers has pastoral duties and will also take a course in Harvard. During his stay among us as rector of the Episcopal church, he has endeared himself both to his parishioners and to the students, all of whom regret his departure, and wish him success in his new field of work.

Class Foot Ball Teams.

It is certainly a source of gratification to all the students of the University to see the great interest that is now shown in the organization of class foot ball teams. The ball has been started and it must be kept rolling. There are the greatest advantages to come from this to the whole University and its athletics. The following classes have elected officers for their teams:

Senior—Weaver, Captain; D. Lindsey, Manager.

Freshman—Rogers, Captain; Lanier, Manager.

The Law and Medical classes have not organized as yet but will do so at once. The managers are arranging games, which will be played at the close of the season for the college championship. We are glad that the suggestion made in the last TAR HEEL in regard to the formation of these teams has been so readily adopted.

Foot Ball News.

Johnny Poe, of Princeton, is coaching U. Va., again.

Hall, guard on the Princeton '92 team, is coaching Auburn.

Yale will have two coaches to every man on the team.

Balliet, the Princeton centre, is a math instructor in Purdue University.

Foss, captain, and for four years half-back of the Tufts College team, is coaching Sewanee.

On Saturday, the following games were played: Harvard 22, Dartmouth 0; Princeton 40, Lafayette 9; Yale 42, Trinity (Conn.) 0.

Vail, quarter-back of U. Pa., will play with the Orange A. C., instead of coaching Vanderbilt. Thaxton, Penn. guard and centre, has been engaged in his stead.

Vanderbilt is jubilant over the prospects of their team. They lose only two old players and have very good new material. They will have a game with U. N. C. in Atlanta on Nov. 17.

There will be no foot-ball at Wake Forest this year, it is announced. There will be more intra-collegiate and less inter-college sport. They say that the outside criticism has been so severe that the college authorities would lend no encouragement.

At Yale, in the future, no member of one team will be allowed to try for another team. The rigid training undergone by candidates requires much time, and in thus requiring the athlete to confine himself to one branch of athletics a mean will be gotten between studies, athletics and health. Captain Armstrong and Holcomb, of the Yale crew, will give up foot-ball. Sanford, the runner, oarsman and footballist, and Murphy, tackle and second-baseman on the teams, will probably continue at foot-ball.

The foot ball season opened Saturday with the following games.

Harvard vs. Dartmouth. 22—0.

Yale vs. Trinity College, 42—0.

(2 15 minute halves).

Princeton vs. Lafayette, 40—2.

Lehigh vs. Rutgers, 25—0.

Besides these there were a number of others, between some of the smaller colleges, all the scores being quite poor.

The three big elevens of course had an easy time of it, and they seem to be more evenly matched than ever. Perhaps the best work was done by Harvard. The Princeton interference was very good. Yale made the largest score but played the weakest team.

Hon. A. W. Graham, A. B., '68, of Oxford and Hon. Thos. Settle of Reidsville, the candidates for congress from the Democratic and Republican parties respectively in this district, spoke here Saturday. Although the weather was very disagreeable, quite a large and enthusiastic crowd turned out to hear them.

Meeting of the Orange Presbytery

The Presbytery of Orange held its meeting in the Presbyterian church of this place, Sept. 28th and 29th. The following ministers were present: Rev. J. Henry Smith D. D., Senior pastor, first church, Greensboro; Rev. D. J. Craig, Reidsville; R. W. Culbertson, Mebane, N. C. ruling elders present were: Prof. J. A. Holmes, Chapel Hill; Mr. Smith, Bethlehem church; C. H. Johnston, New Hope church.

The Presbytery was called to order and presided over by the moderator, Rev. R. W. Culbertson, and Rev. S. O. Hall was elected clerk pro tem.

The following was the chief business transacted by the Presbytery: The pastoral relations were dissolved between Rev. R. E. C. Lawson and Alexander church and between Rev. W. C. Alexander and Mt. Airy church, and Mr. Alexander was dismissed to Concord Presbytery. Licentiate H. S. Bradshaw was received by letter of dismission from Holston Presbytery (Tenn.)

Licentiate H. S. Bradshaw and Daniel J. Currie were then examined on Philosophy, Theology, ecclesiastical History, the Greek and Hebrew languages, the Sacraments, and the Principles and Rules of Government and Discipline of the Presbyterian church, with a view of ordination. All of these examinations the Presbytery sustained as satisfactory. Each of the licentiate preached a sermon also, Mr. Bradshaw conducting public service in the Presbyterian church Friday night and Mr. Currie preaching before the Presbytery Saturday morning. Each of these sermons, after the usual criticism by the Presbytery were sustained as satisfactory parts of trial. The ordination sermon (by a member of the Presbytery) was preached from John 1: 42 ("and he brought him to Jesus") by Rev. S. O. Hall and was very much enjoyed by all. At the close of this sermon licentiate H. S. Bradshaw and Daniel J. Currie were solemnly ordained to the full work of the Ministry by the laying of the hands of the Presbytery, the ordination prayer being made by Dr. Smith.

Another licentiate, H. C. Keyley, principal of the High School of Orange Presbytery and pastor elect of Mebane and Bethlehem churches, was also to have been examined and ordained at the same meeting but was not as he had not secured as yet his letter of dismission from another Presbytery.

The Presbytery arranged the installation of Messrs. Bradshaw and Currie as pastors of the churches which have extended calls to them as follow: Mr. Bradshaw as pastor of Hillsboro and Fairfield churches by Revs. D. J. Craig and S. O. Hall on Sept 30th; and Mr. Currie as pastor of Chapel Hill church by Dr. Smith, Sept. 30th, and of New Hope church by Rev. D. J. Craig, Sept. 30th.

Presbytery adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator during the meeting of Synod, which convenes to meet in the First church of Greensboro on the 23rd of Oct. 1894, and to meet in regular session at Reidsville, N. C., April 23rd 1895.

Hellenian Editors Organized.
