Tennis Tournament.

The thirteenth Annual Tournament for the American College Championship was held under the auspices of the Inter-collegiate Tennis Association, in New Haven, Conn., Oct. 2 to 6. The Inter-collegiate Association is a branch of the United States National Association, and consists of the following colleges and Universities, viz: Amherst, Cornell, Brown, Columbia, Harvard, Princeton, Trinity, Univ. of Pa., Wesleyan, Williams, Yale, and the University of North Carolina. The Tournament was held on the grounds of the New Haven Town Club, where they have nine beautiful dirt courts, which are kept in first class condition. Mr. Joseph T. Whittelsey, of Cambridge, Mass. Sec. of the National Association was referee. The tournament opened Oct. 2nd. The weather was perfect for tennis. The following colleges were represented: Princeton, Harvard, Columbia, Univ. of North Carolina, Amherst, Yale, Trinity, and Brown. Following is the score for the first day

Colby, Princeton, beat Read, Harvard, 6-3, 6-2.

Miles, of Columbia, beat Bridgers, Univ. N. C., 6-2, 7-9, 6-4.

Herrick, Princeton, beat Mile, Amherst, 6-4, 6-1.

Talmage, Yale, beat Jessup, Princeton, 6-4, 6-3.

Belden, Amherst, beat Graves, Trinity, 7-5, 2-6, 6-4.

Herrick, Princeton, beat Foote, Yale, 6-4, 9-7.

Talmage, Yale, beat Jones, Brown, 6-1, 6-9.

Pier, Harvard, beat Gurnert, Columbia, 6-1, 6-0.

Chace, Yale, beat Bryson, Univ. of N. C., 6-1, 6-2.

The second day's playing left the following men to play the semi-finals: Talmage, Yale, Herrick, Princeton, Budlong, Brown, Chace, Yale. It rained on Thursday but Friday dawned clear and the semi-finals were played at 10:30, Chace defeating Talmage and Budlong defeating Herrick. The finals were played at 2:30, Chace, Yale, winning from Budlong, Brown, in three straight sets, 6-3, 6-4, 6-3. The doubles were begun Wednesday morning and were of little importance until the finals were reached. Chase and Foote, of Yale, defeated Colby and Herrick, of Princeton, 6-3, 6-2. In the first day, Bridgers and Bryson, of Univ. of North Carolina, drew Colby and Herrick, of Princeton, and were defeated by the latter, 6-2, 1-6, 2-6.

Yale won the first prize in both singles and doubles. This makes four times that Yale has won the beautiful and costly Inter-collegiate Cup, which was given by Huntington '89. It is to become the property of the college first winning it seven times. Harvard has won it times, Yale 4, Brown 2, Columbia 1, Cornell 1,

As for the individual playing of Bridgers and Bryson,

Bridgers drew Miles, of Columbia, and was defeated by him, 19 games to 15. Bridgers played his usual, steady game, while Miles played a hard, driving game, using the "Lawford stroke" entirely. Bridgers gained most of his points in "lobbing." As for Bryson, he was very unfortunate in drawing Chace, who ranks 2nd in the United States and is a strong player. He defeated Bryson in two straight sets, winning 12 games to Bryson's 3. Bryson's left hand drives were all entirely new strokes to Chace but the latter was "death on lobbed balls," driving them into the back of the court.

In doubles, Bridgers and Bryson, were also very unfortunate in drawing Colby and Herrick, of Princeton. They were defeated by 14 games to 9. They won the first set with hands down, (6-2) then the Princeton team caught onto their style of playing and rallied, taking the next two sets without any trouble. The playing of Yale, Princeton, and the other colleges is entirely different from our style, they using the Lawford stroke and having perfect control of the ball. Bridgers and Bryson, both report having had a splendid time, and to have caught "onto" a few points of how tennis should be played.

Y. M. C. A. Conference.

The president of the Y. M. C. A. was notified a few days ago that there would be held at Trinity a Bible Study Conference, and asking for several men to be sent over. Mr. Brockman of the International Committee, was present and conducted the meeting, which will be sure to result in good to the associations which were represented.

Wake Forest was represented by G. W. Griffin, '96 and A. C. Cree, '98. A. & M by Yarboro, '95; Gimbren; '97 and Faust, '95. Trinity by Fitzgerald, '95; McLarty, '95; Weaver, '95; Howie, '95; Rowe, '95; Aldridge, '96 and Wooten, '97. The University was represented by J. W. Canada, '96, and W. R. Webb, Jr., '96.
