From the German.

"My heart a question I ask thee;
What is love, canst tell?"
"Two souls with but a single thought
Two hearts one beat as well."
"And say whither comes love?"
"It springs from itself alone."
"Tell me how perishes love?"
"Love that has vanished was none."
"And what is true and holy love?"
"It self forgetful is."
And when is love the deepest?
"When it the quietest is."
"And when is love the richest?"
"Tis richest when it gives."
"And how is it that love speaks?"
"It speaks not but only lives."

Mutually Deceived.

"Two souls with but a single thought
Two hearts that beat as one."
I wed for money, so did she—
And each of us had none.

He held three aces against his wife—
The game of course was poker.
And when she called, he cried aloud,
"I've triplets" just to joke her.
She looked and saw that it was so
And smiled the very queerest
Then she murmured soft and low
"I'm glad you had them dearest,"

Called Down.

"I love you—I—a college boy"
With rosy flush and dimple
The sweet lips answered, "so it seems—
A freshman pure and simple!"

Change of Value.

King Richard wished to trade for a horse
His kingdom, going to rack.
The boys now don't do that way,
But spend sixty cents for a "jack"

Anecdote of Gov. Swain.

"GIVE THE DEVIL HIS DUE."
This common phrase was turned very wittily by a member of the North Carolina bar many years ago on three of his legal brethren. During the trial of a case, Hillman, Dews and Gov. Swain, president of the University, handed James Dodge who was clerk of the Superior Court the following epitaph:
"Here lies James Dodge who dodged all good
And never dodged an evil,
But after dodging all he could
He could not dodge the devil."
Mr. Dodge sent back the following impromptu reply:
"Here lies a Hillman and a Swain,
Their lot let no man choose;
They lived in sin and died in pain
And the devil got his dues [Dews]."

A Lost Opportunity.

A certain young man now in college had rather a funny experience some time ago. He was returning from some place of amusement with a young lady when she suddenly said "Will, I'm going to faint." Very much taken aback Will replied "Oh, Miss Kate, Miss Kate, here's a post." History saith not whether such heroic treatment cured the attack or not.

The First Two Volumes OF The Tar Heel.

We have about ten sets of the first two volumes of THE TAR HEEL with only two numbers missing. These we offer at $1.00 for the two volumes. They form an interesting record of college life.

We can also fill out your set, if you have a partial one, at five cents per number supplied. Give your order to Harry Howell, Business Manager, before the supply is exhausted.

A Wonderful Invention.

Zoology teaches us that the hairs of the head are hollow, and contain an oil that gives them life. In clipping the hair with scissors, this hollow is left open, and the hair loses its life-giving properties.

I have a Machine named the Singeing Machine, which removes the hair and at the same time closes up the hollow causing the hair to retain its life-giving properties, and therefore stopping the hair from falling out or dying and giving it a soft life growth. Call and examine this machine and have your hair singed.

Special attention given to dressing Ladies hair. Cutting hair done with exquisite and artistic skill by the old University Barber of twenty years experience.

The Singeing Machine is highly recommended by scientists throughout the country.

Very respectfully,
T. D. DUNSTON,
Professor of Tonsorial Art.
