The foot ball team leaves on Saturday morning for Raleigh to play the A. & M. College.

Several Trinity students were at the Hotel Friday, and took in the foot ball game.

Capt. Durham and Manager Green of the Trinity team watched the A. & M. game on Friday.

Two hundred dollars worth of gymnasium apparatus has arrived and will be put in place at once.

Mr. Jas. Baird of Asheville who arrived on the Hill Friday is another valuable addition to the team.

Mr. Tom Denson, agent for W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., of Raleigh, was at Roberson's Hotel Monday and Tuesday.

W. D. Merritt, ex '95, Law '94, arrived on Monday thereby raising our foot ball stock. He played left end on the '93 Varsity eleven.

The A. & M. team arrived on Thursday night, and left on Saturday morning, stopping at the Chapel Hill Hotel. The members of the team were Whitaker, (captain), Dey, (manager), Moseley, Hunter, Pearson, Wright, Vick, Jenkins, S. Alexander, Perkins, Hughes, Beard, Clark, Ramsey and Tomlinson. The following students accompanied the team; Gold, Sinclair, Anderson and T. Alexander.

N. S. Long, Spalding's local agent, has just received a new lot of padded football suits, which he sells at $2.20. Everyone playing ball at all should have one of these suits, as a matter of economy in saving the wear and tear of ordinary clothes. He also has sweaters, jerseys, shoes, caps and stockings, in fact the full football outfit.

Dr Hall's Sermon before the Y. M. C. A.

On Sunday night the first of the monthly sermons was preached before the Y. M. C. A. by Dr. Hall, of New York. Most of the churches of the village, as is usually the custom, gave the night to the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. sermon, and the Chapel was completely filled with villagers and students. Drs. Hume and Carroll conducted the opening services, after which Dr. Hall arose and took as his text Hebrews 13:8 "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to-day, and forever". The object of his sermon was to prove the existence of a divine intelligence behind the workings of the material universe. His whole discourse abounded in metaphors, similes, mannerisms, and suggestions. His style struck us as being somewhat peculiar, but perhaps it is better adapted to audiences less susceptible of impressions made by the presentation of simple gospel truths. The wonderful pictures he drew from his own imagination to represent the past, the present, and the future of man, show that this faculty plays an important part in his mental make-up. His sermon was both instructive and entertaining.

Reception to the Methodist Students.

On last Thursday evening, the 11th, a reception was given to the Methodist boys in the Sunday School room of the Methodist Church, between the hours of nine and eleven. Invitations were sent out to all the students who are members of the Methodist Church, or whose parents are Methodists, and to those belonging to churches not represented in the village. The pastor, Rev. N. M. Watson, met each visitor with a cordial handshake at the door, and soon had him at ease in pleasant conversation with other guests. Cream and cake were served with much grace by fair waitresses. It is very little to say that all present enjoyed the occasion. It not only gave the students a very pleasant evening, but afforded them an opportunity to come in more intimate relations with the townspeople, the members of the faculty, and their families. Such occasions can not be too frequent.

Among the ladies present, were, Mrs. Harrington, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Mangum, Mrs. Headen, Mrs. Tankersley, Mrs. Long, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Barbee, Misses Manning, Mangum, McCauley, Martin, Mason, Kirkland and Watson.
