UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, CHAPEL HILL, N. C., NOVEMBER 15, 1894.

No. 9

University vs. Richmond College. 28 to 0.

At 3:30 umpire Devin tossed the coin. "Heads" called captain Harrison, and as "heads" fell he chose the ball. Quickly lining up, the ball is kicked off 43 yards to Capt. Baskerville who fumbles the catch and is downed before going far. Carolina then takes the ball and Moore makes 6 yards; Stephens 1 yard; Guion 3 yds. Moore then tries the line for good gain. Baird then advances the ball 5 yds; Pugh 3 yds; Baskerville 5 yds, Stephens 10 yds, Moore 6 yds, Baird 3 yds, Baskerville 6 yds; Guion 5 yds, Collier 8 yds, Pugh 5 yds. Moore 2 yds Guion 5 yds, Stephens 6 yds, Moore 1 yd, Stephens 8 yds, Pugh 10 yds, Moore 2 yds. The ball is now fumbled but U. N. C. regains, and Collier advances ball 5 yds. Guion then goes over the line for a touchdown, and Baskerville kicks goal. Score 6-0. Time 7 minutes.

Captain Harrison again kicks off forty-five yards to Stephens who fumbles this time, but advances the ball a short distance. Moore then takes the ball forward for several yards. Ball is fumbled on next down, but regained. Baird then turns the line for 8 yds, Pugh makes 3 yds, Moore 6 yds, Stephens 6 yds, Baskerville 15 yds, Stephens 14 yds, Guion 17 yds, Baird 2 yds, Moore 4 yds, Baskerville then takes the ball but fails to gain, and is badly hurt, but resumes his place after a short while. Guion then takes the ball but loses 2½ yards on a tackle by Keyser, Collier fails to make the necessary distance and the ball goes over to R. C. on four downs. Rucker tries around the left end loses 2 yds, Keyser also tries to advance the ball but loses 3 yards. Ellerson then punts but the kick is blocked and Pugh falls on the ball and while R. C. looks on he goes over the line for the second touchdown. Baskerville kicks goal. Score 12-0. Time 9½ minutes.

Ball is brought back to centre of the field and Richmond College again kicks off for 45 yards, Stephens catches and rushes it back for 15 yards Moore also rushes the "pig skin" forward for 15 yards but loses the ball.

Rucker advances the ball 1 yard. McNeil makes 5 yards. Rucker then tries line for no gain, and U. N. C. takes the ball on four downs. Collier makes 7 yards. Stephens then tries around the end but loses 8 yards, Baskerville then takes the ball forward 7 yards, Stephens also advances the ball, but not enough and ball goes over.

McNeil loses 1 yard on a play through the line, and Ellerson makes 1½ between R. G. C. Ellerson then falls back as if to kick, tries to run with the ball and loses ground and again U. N. C. has the ball.

Stevens advances ball 7½ yards, Baird 8 yards, Pugh goes for 1½ yards through line and Guion for 6 yards, Collier 14 yards, Guion 13 yards, Collier then goes 9 yards and makes touchdown, Baskerville kicks goal. Score, 18-0.

Richmond College kicks the ball for 35 yards. Ball is caught and rushed back 12 yards, when time is called.

SECOND HALF.

Baskerville kicks off 50 yards. Ball is caught and rushed back 12 yards. Rucker tries around end but fails to gain. Keyser loses 1 yard. Ellerson then punts fifteen yards, and Merritt gets the ball but on off side play by U. N. C. Richmond College keeps the ball. McNeil makes 1 yard around R. E. Ellerson bucks the line for 1 yard, then kicks to Stanly who makes fair catch. Stephens gains 1 yard, Guion 1 yard, Stephens 3 yards, Moore six yards, Stephens 3½ yards, Baird 3 yards, Collier 2 yards. Ball is fumbled by Stanly and Moore, but Merritt falls on it. Guion fails to gain, and Richmond College takes the ball on four downs. Rucker tries between the left end and loses the ball. Guion makes a 19 yard run, and Moore then goes over the line for a touchdown. Baskerville fails to kick goal. Score, 22-0. Time, 9 minutes.

Ellerson kicks off 50 yards, to Collier who rushes ball back 15 yards. Pugh then makes 2 yards, Moore advances 4 yards, Guion loses 1 yard, Collier gains 8 yards. Richmond College then takes ball on holding in line. Rucker tries end for 2 yards, when Baird makes a beauty tackle, and Merritt is hurt but bravely keeps on playing. Rucker tries the end again but loses ½ yard. Ellerson punts, Stanly makes a long run, picking ball off ground on short bound, and runs back seven yards and is then downed. Stephens loses 4 yards on a pretty tackle by Keyser, Moore advances the ball 7 yards, Stephen 2 yards, Baird also makes good gain. Pugh advances 3 yards, Moore 3 yards, Guion makes 7 yards, Moore 11 yards, Baskerville then tries across the left end but loses 6 yards and is hurt but keeps on playing. Moore gains six yards, and on trying the same place again and failing to gain, the ball goes over. Captain Harrison is badly hurt in the scrimmage but after a while very gritily resumes playing. Rucker tries the line, but loses 1½ yards, on a tackle by Baird. Richmond College then tries a double pass around the left end for 2 yards, Ellerson punts to Stanly who gains 10 yards, Stephens takes the ball but loses it in the scrimmage and Harrison falls on it. McNeil then makes 7½ yards through the line, Rucker loses ½ yard, McNeil loses 2½ yards through the line, Ellerson punts 25 yards into touch, and Gregory falls on the ball. Pugh then takes the ball but fails to gain. Ball fumbled by U. N. C. and Richmond College gets it.

Rucker tries L. E. for 5 yards tackled by Merritt and hurt but soon resumes playing. McNeil tried the other end for four yards. Ellerson tries the line but loses the ball to U. N. C.

Collierr advances the ball 8 yards, Guion goes 5 yards, Moore 4 yards, Collier another run of 8 yards, Wilborn is hurt but plays on. Pugh goes through the line for 5 yards, Stephens makes 6 yards. Guion fails to gain, Moore gets 2 yards through the line. Baskerville rushes the line for three successive times, making gains of 6, 5 and 5 yards respectively. Moore rushes ball 6 yards. Baskerville advances another 6 yards, and then Pugh goes over the line for the final touchdown. Capt Baskerville is badly hurt, barely able to stand, but nevertheless he kicks the goal, making the score 28-0.

As the time was nearly up, it was decided to call the game, there being only a few minutes left to play.

The teams lined up as follows.

U. N. C. (28).		R. C. (0.)
Gregory,	R. E.	Wilborn.
Baird,	R. T.	Lunsford.
Collier,	R. G.	Higginson.
Sharp,	C.	Doughtry.
Guion,	L. G.	Bloxtou.
Pugh,	L. T.	Keyser.
Merritt,	L. E.	Binford.
Stevens,	L. H. B.	McNeil.
Moore,	R. H. B.	Rucker.
Baskerville, (Capt)	F. B.	Ellerson.
Stanley,	Q. B.	Harrison, (Capt)

Time of game, 2 halves of 25 minutes each. Umpire, Mr. Wm. A. Dervin, of Oxford. Referee, Mr. John Schenck, of Greensboro.

The game was marked by an entire absence of ill feeling on either side, and though there was more "kicking" than suited the spectators, yet in these respects the game was satisfactory. As to the game itself, for the first fifteen minutes both sides played hard ball, then the 'Varsity for some unaccountable reason slowed down and didn't play "bumble puppy" until within the last ten minutes when they were again aroused from their sleep walking state. There was entirely too much talking in line and inattention to signals, and a great deal more fumbling than there should have been, nor did the interference do its duty always, some of the men being particularly slow.

Concert on Friday Night.

To-morrow night, Friday, the 16th, the Schubert Symphony Quartette will appear in the Chapel. Large illustrated posters announce their coming. Among the attractions are a Female Quartette, mandolin and guitar playing, and "Little Tommie," a youthful prodigy on the violin. The concert is for the benefit of the Athletic Association. Let all the students attend, and spend an enjoyable evening and at the same time help the Association.

Late Foot Ball News.

Pennsylvania defeated Princeton in Trenton N. J., on last Saturday, 12-0. The Quakers out played the Tigers at all points.

Virginia has no more games until Thanksgiving Day, dates having been cancelled by Georgetown, and Pennsylvania State College. Johnny Poe has left them and Mackey, captain and tackle, Pennsylvania's '93 team has been engaged as coach.

Blacksburg A. & M. College of Va, defeated St. Alban's Academy 4 to 0. This game is interesting to us, because the captain of the Radford team is W. R. Kenan, Jr., B. S. '94, who is an instructor at the Academy, and who played one of the half backs on the 'Varsity '93 eleven and right field on the 'Varsity '93 nine.

Lee Marshall and Murray McGuire, the celebrated Virginian battery, played full back and quarter back respectively on the Radford team.

Saturday's foot ball scores are:
North Carolina 28, Richmond College 0.

Yale 52, Lehigh 0.
Annapolis, 6, Pennsylvania State College 6.

V. M. I. 16, Washington and Lee 0.
Cornell 0, Williams 0.
Sewanee 30, University of Nashville 4.

Other late games in the South are:
University of Georgia, 40, South Carolina College 0.

University of Alabama 16, Tribone 8
Sewanee 12, University of Georgia 8.

Alabama on Monday.

For the first time, we meet the University of Alabama in an athletic contest, in Birmingham, Ala., on next Monday, Nov. 19th.

The make up of their team, as given by the Sewanee Purple, is as follows; Bankhead, 150, left end; Calahan, 162, left tackle; Davis, 168 left guard; Northington, 161, centre; Pratt, 190, right guard; Simpson, 151, right tackle; Stone, 141, right end; Walker, 145, quarter-back; Burr, 132, left half-back; Goodwin, 130, right half-back; Abbott, 164, full-back. Average weight, 155 pounds, 3 less than the 'Varsity. Stone is captain, and Abbott, who is played on the team, very unamateurlike, is coach.

They have defeated Tulane University, 18 to 6. Last year Sewanee defeated them, 20 to 0. There is no doubt of our victory.

Several of the U. N. C. boys witnessed the game between A. & M. and Trinity, at Durham, last Friday. Trinity won after a hard fight by a score of 6 to 0. Trinity had much the heavier team but their playing was entirely outclassed by A. & M.
