

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Remember the Schubert Symphony Club on Friday night.

Ed. Carr spent Friday and Saturday at his home in Durham.

The Gun Club is now organized and will practice every Thursday evening.

E. J. Woodward, '95, on account of the weakness of his eyes, has been obliged to discontinue his studies.

President Kilgo and Professor Mims, of Trinity College, were on the Hill Sunday, the guests of Prof. Harrington.

The University German Club will give another german in the Gymnasium to-morrow night. W. A. Graham, '95, is leader.

Messrs. Graham, W., Myers, Steele, Scott and Schenck accompanied the team to Greensboro last Friday.

Messrs. Myers, W. A. Graham, Geo. Graham, Steele, Bridgers, Ed. Carr, Patterson and Harty were among the guests at Col. J. S. Carr's Somerset villa last Thursday night.

L. C. Brogden '95, and W. J. Brogden, '98, were called to their home in Goldsboro, last Wednesday, by a telegram announcing the severe illness of their mother, who died before they reached her bedside. We extend to them our sincerest sympathy in this their sore bereavement.

The Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette will appear in the Chapel to-morrow (Friday) night, part proceeds to go the University Athletic Association. Admission, 50 cents, and 75c for reserved seats.

Don't miss the Athletic Association benefit on Friday night. The Schubert Symphony Club is an excellent musical organization that give much pleasure and entire satisfaction wherever they appear.

A. H. Edgerton, '97, and E. P. Wooten, '97, are suffering from injuries received in bicycle accidents, the former sustaining a painful fracture of his leg. We are glad to say he is improving and wish him speedy recovery. Wooten had his hand cut by a fall.

Dr. Kilgo's Sermon Before the Y. M. C. A.

On Sunday evening last, Dr. John Kilgo, President of Trinity College, preached the November sermon before the Y. M. C. A. in the University Chapel. The sermon was full of thought and interest, and highly appreciated by the large audience which filled the Chapel on that occasion. The difference between Christianity and the other religions of the world was declared to be its supernatural element and its life giving power. The trend of the argument, as we understood it, was that more thought and less tears characterized the better Christians.

Vanderbilt Next.

Our next game is with Vanderbilt University in Atlanta, Ga., on next Saturday, Nov. 17th; and next to the game with Virginia, this will be the hardest tussle we have this season for the championship of the South.

Vanderbilt has won from Centre College of Kentucky 6 to 0; from Auburn, 20 to 4; and from the University of Mississippi, — to —.

Keller, quarter-back, is captain of the team, and Thornton, guard and centre on Pennsylvania, is coach; their average is about 165 pounds, 8 pounds more than the 'Varsity. They will line up as follows:

- Tuttle, left end.
- Kittrell, left tackle.
- Burch, left end.
- Hughes, centre.
- Hildebrand, right guard.
- Fitzgerald, right tackle.
- Gaines, right end.
- Keller, quarter-back.
- Dortch, left half-back.
- Boogher, right half-back.
- Connell, full-back.

We have met Vanderbilt but once on the athletic field; the great eleven of '92 defeated them 24 to 0 in Nashville. Since then, the Tennesseans have improved in athletics, and we need not be surprised if we have a closer game this year. But we should expect nothing less than a victory, and we must have it!

We would like to make a suggestion to the spectators at the daily practices of the team. Instead of crowding to the side lines, and all over the field, collect on the grand stand and cheer and applaud good plays. Encouragement to the players is as good in their scrub games, as in match games. It will not only please and praise them for good work done, but will incite them on to greater feats and more strenuous efforts.
