

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

P. R. Slocumb '98, has returned from a short visit home.

T. N. Webb '98 spent Thanksgiving Day in Charlotte.

J. H. White has returned from his home in Grham.

P. J. Thomas '97, took in the Welcome Week at Wilmington.

A. H. Edgerton '97 who has been confined to his room with a broken leg, is able to be out.

The Fall Final Examinations begin on next Monday, Dec. 10, and close on Thursday Dec. 20.

R. R. Gatling has been quite ill for some days past, we hope to see him out again soon.

W. A. Graham, Joe Graham and James Webb spent Thanksgiving Day at their homes in Hillsboro.

D. Lindsey '95 and W. R. Webb Jr. '96 have been initiated into the order of Gimghouls.

Misses Leak and Holman of Durham, who have been visiting at Mrs. Martin's, have returned home.

D. A. Kirkpatrick and W. A. Devin, of the champion '92 eleven, have been coaching the University of Alabama team.

Dr. Thomas Hume and Professor Cobb, are attending the Baptist State Convention in Charlotte.

Mr. W. R. Webb, '67, proprietor of the famous school for boys at Bell Buckle, Tenn., is visiting his son, W. R. Webb, Jr. '96.

Rev. N. M. Watson preached his last sermon before the Chapel Hill Methodist Church, last Sunday, to a large congregation. He is now in attendance on the North Carolina Conference at Durham.

Some issues ago, the TAR HEEL spoke of the importance of electing the Washington's Birthday orator, immediately. Nothing, as yet, has been done, and this does not speak at all well for the University.

University alumni are still at the front in all branches of life. Rev. R. H. Marsh '58, is President, and Rev. N. B. Cobb, '54, Secretary of the Baptist State Convention, now in session at Charlotte.

A delightful and unique entertainment in the shape of a County Fair was given at the Normal School in Greendboro, Friday evening, to which some 'Varsity men were invited. Young ladies, dressed in appropriate costumes, represented their respective counties, and a prize was given to the best representation.

Call at Sorrell's and examine his handsome display of holiday goods. If you want something desirable and appropriate for a Christmas gift, you should not fail to inspect his line selected with this end in view. Call at once, and if your particular choice be not in stock, he will order it on short notice.

THE Red and Blue objects to the statement, "The three largest universities in the country are: University of Michigan, 2800; Harvard, 2500; Northwestern University, 2000." There are 2282 students at the University of Pennsylvania.

It is reported that Hughes, Kirtrell and Dorch, centre, tackle and half-backs on the Vanderbilt team, finding that foot ball requires too much time, have gone on pledges never again to enter into the sport.

"E. S. Askew, ('93-'94), the famous First Cottage Singer, is attending University of North Carolina. He is First Tenor in the Glee Club. 'Skew' is paying especial attention to English this year.—Randolph Macon Monthly.

Twelve of the fifteen fraternities at Lehigh have signed the proclamation to adopt Friday night as Fraternity night. The other three regretted the fact that existing circumstances rendered it impossible to agree in this plan. This adoption of one night for all the meetings is due to the energy of The Burr.

Those members of the Y. M. C. A. and others who are interested in mission work may see another chance to exert their benevolence in the following notice from one of the Durham papers which is here inserted by request.

SEND IN YOUR DONATIONS. Bear in mind that Provident Club, composed of young ladies, will be in their room over the First National Bank, tomorrow from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., and they will gladly receive all donations of clothing, money or any other thing that will help them in their work for the needy. Send in something so that they may make the heart of some poor unfortunate glad on the day when we all should give thanks.

The above notice was left out of last weeks issue on account of lack of space. We feel sure that any donations would be gladly received yet [EDS.]

Yale Team for '95.
Captain Hickey, Butterworth, Armstrong, Adee, Beard, McCrea, Stillman and Hickok will be graduated this year. Butterworth, however, has played only three years, as he was simply a member of his freshman eleven in his freshman year, and he may return to Yale for a law course; in which case he will be eligible for one more year's work on the gridiron. McCrea and Hickok will be graduated from the scientific course, and have played only three years, and both may return. Of the three, Butterworth is the most likely to be found on the Yale team next year.—Harvard News.
