LOCAL AND PERTONAL.

Mr. J. V. Lewis spent Xmas in Chapel Hill.

Dr. Charles Baskerville spent Christmas in New York.

Prof. Cain visited relatives in Salisbury during the recess.

Dr. Venable and family spent Xmas in Charlottesville, Va.

Dr. H. V. Wilson and family spent the holidays in Baltimore.

Dr. Whitehead has returned from visits to Richmond and Salisbury.

Haywood Parker '87, Law '94, of Asheville, recently made a flying visit to the village.

Bishop Cheshire preached before a large audience at the Episcopal Church on last Sunday.

Mr. Z. T. Broughton and wife spent part of the holidays with relatives and friends in Raleigh.

We are pleased to note the change in the internal arrangement of the library; it is a decided improvement.

The next University Magazine for January will contain articles from Paris, Armenia, and Japan.

Dr. Hume will deliver the sermon on the occasion of the ninth anniversary of the Raleigh Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Wilson and family have returned from Baltimore, where they remained during the Christmas recess.

S. F. Austin, '93, who has been teaching in Elizabeth City and Clayton, has returned to take the course in Law.

Thomas R. Little '95, attended the Alpha Tau Omega Convention in Washington City during the Christmas vacation.

Dr. Hume delivered lectures at the State Normal and Industrial School in Greensboro, and at High Point, during the holidays.

Wescott Roberson and McK. B. Aston each claim to have made a new "mash" during the holidays, and it wasn't their finger, either.

At a meeting of the football team on Wednesday afternoon Mr. Chas. Baskerville was again elected captain for the team of '95. As Mr. Baskerville will not play again he immediately offered his resignation which was not accepted and he was requested to hold the position until time could be had to chose his successor.

President Winston went down to Raleigh on Tuesday.

Prof. E. A. Alderman has been elected a member of the American Historical Association, an honor most worthily bestowed.

We are glad to see out again J. E. Alexander after his recent severe illness with appendicitis. His father, Dr. Alexander, is with him.

Captain Peyton Brown, who for several years was conductor on the R. & D. and made himself very popular with the students, died in Raleigh Dec. 13th.

The Rt. Rev. Joseph Cheshire, Bishop of the Western Diocese of North Carolina, preached both morning and evening in the Episcopal church last Sunday.

J. L. Patterson '95, and Claudius Dockery '88, Law 94, attended the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Convention that met in Washington, D. C., during the holidays.

We understand that Mrs. Mason and daughter, of Baltimore, who here recently on a visit, are to locate here permanently. We shall be glad to welcome them to our village.

Charles L. Van Noppen '94, winner of the Mangum medal, is on the Hill, on a business trip. He is now connected with the publishing house of C. A. Nichols, of Springfield Mass.

From now until June, Jesse M. Oldham, familiarly known as "Oldie," captain of the base-ball team that is to be the champion of the South, will be the most important man in the University.

Rev. J. L. Cunningham, the new presiding elder of this district, held the first Quarterly Conference for the year last Sunday, and preached twice in the day to large audiences.

Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, valedictorian of the class of '86., now a member of the North Carolina Conference, spent the holidays on the Hill, at the home of his wife's mother, Mrs. Mangum. He preached in the Methodist church on Dec. 16th.

Twenty men reported at the gymnasium Tuesday to enter training for the Base Ball Team. A number of these are new men but all signed the pledge, and are ready for the regular work which began Wednesday. The class meets every day at 5 o'clock.

Frank N. Cooke '96, has been appointed by Congressman Bunn to the cadetship at the United States Military Academy from the fourth district which will be left vacant in June by the graduation of Cadet Sills. He will stand his entrance examination in March.

Student Aston put in a good part of his holidays decorating the church and "playing" Santa Claus for the Baptist Xmas entertainment. As a decorator and as "Santa," they do say, in the language of Tom Dunston, "he is a rouser."
