

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Rev. Mr. Pearson will leave us Friday evening.

The Gun Club will practice hereafter on Saturday afternoons.

The Philological club held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday night.

Misses Lyon and Crews of Durham have been visiting at Dr. Roberson's.

This is bad weather for base-ball practice but the gymnasium work still goes on.

The A. T. O.'s have established a tennis court to the west of the Athletic Field.

Exchange Editor Howell has been suffering with a severe sore-throat for the past few days.

Dr. Ball doesn't like to gather up stray tennis balls any more than the rest of us, but he does it gracefully just the same.

"Mickey" Southerland plays tennis like the Irishman plays the fiddle, by main strength.

Mr. J. O. Carr has been confined to his room for the past few days. We hope to see him out again soon.

Dr. Venable spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Raleigh, attending a meeting of the State Board of Health.

The Glee, Banjo and Mandolin Clubs left Wednesday morning and will give their first concert at Louisburg.

When Leader Eatman pitches a tune seven octaves below where it ought to be, watch Bahnson's face as he reaches for it.

Mrs. Jno. G. Williams, of Raleigh, and Mrs. Closs, of Durham, are visiting Mayor Watson, and attending the Pearson meetings.

Gregory of last year's team, made his first appearance on the practice field last Thursday, and Capt. Oldham smiled one of his Haywood street smiles.

While sliding bases one afternoon last week Henderson was hit on the head with a base-ball. He soon recovered. Capt. Oldham will report on the condition of the ball as soon as he can find it.

The candidates for the ball team have been batting and running bases for the last few days. It is too early yet to speculate on probabilities, or we would give a few words about them.

The members of the law class who are to leave Saturday were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Dr. Manning Tuesday evening.

We have a very interesting article from the Red and Blue which we will shortly give to our readers. It shows a condition identical with our own, and might be transferred bodily to our columns without changing a word. The editors don't seem to have any strings tied to them.

L. I. Guion '96 has been installed in the Delta Kappa Epsilon.

In spite of the bad weather a good crowd turned out to the Glee Club concert Friday night.

The following members of the Law Class will apply for license before the Supreme Court next Saturday:

Messrs. Gnthrie, Watkins, White, Shuford, Johnson, Pruden, Bennet, Long and Edwards.

A Toast.

Here's to the clearness of the flowing bowl,
Here's to the jovial care-free soul
Who drinks the wine,
Spirit divine,
That causes laughter and mirth.

Then here's to the joys of delightful wine,
Here's to that nectar pure and fine,
Sparkling ever,
Forget it never,
That it causes laughter and mirth.

So, then, here's to the flowing bowl,
And here's to the jolly good soul,
Mirthful-merry,
Ever cherry,
Prince of good fellows on earth.

They do say that there is a student now in college who is very fond of betting and never loses and opportunity to place a bet. He has been attending the Pearson meetings and became very much enthused over them, but he hasn't lost the taste for his favorite sport as the following conversation shows:

"Dr. C., if I get religious and die will I go to heaven?"

Dr. C. "Of course."

"Will I have wings there?"

"Certainly."

"Will you be there too?"

"Yes, I hope so."

"And will you have wings too?"

"Yes."

"Then, by George, I'll bet you ten dollars that I'll beat you flying."

An old negro minister in the village recently got off a very good joke unintentionally. He was preaching from the text that "The Lord Jesus Christ walked abroad, curing divers diseases," and in the course of his sermon he said: "Yes, brethren and sistereen, you git sick and you send for Dr. Whitehead or Dr. Wilson and they can cure 'most any disease that flesh is heir to, but when it comes to these here divers, 'taint nobody but God A'-mighty hisself kin cure 'em."

On the University Road.

"I've been on this road twenty years and know what I am talking about," said the conductor to the passenger who complained of slow time.

"Twenty years!" gasped the passenger; "what station did you get on at?"

Apple-pie Order.

U. D. Bakeman,
Please send me one doz. apple pies by the next mail.

I. D. Eatman.

Oh talk not of the student's joy
The rapture in his books expressed
His truest bliss is when he finds
A quarter in his cast off vest.
