

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Bocaccio has moved again.

T. R. Little returned from a trip to Greensboro Monday.

Mr. D. Eatman returned from his home in Oxford Monday night.

Editor Wills is quite sick in his room at Mrs. Hendon's.

Several students joined the different village churches on last Sunday morning.

Mrs. and Miss Crawford of Goldsboro are visiting Mrs. A. A. Kluttz.

Mr Geo. Stephens left Monday afternoon for Greensboro as advance agent for the Glee Club.

L. I. Guion left Tuesday for his home in Charlotte. He will return next fall to captain the foot ball team.

The local nimrods are making life miserable for the unfortunate robins that venture upon the campus.

Gen. Rufus Barringer, who died in Charlotte a few days ago was an A. B. of the class of '42.

On Tuesday, the old baseball suits were issued to the candidates. New suits will be bought shortly.

The next Alumni Quarterly will contain a list of the benefactors to the University with portraits of some of the principal benefactors.

The Glee Club returned Saturday night from a very pleasant and profitable trip to Oxford Louisburg and Henderson

Bishop Cheshire will preach in the Episcopal Church this (Thursday) evening. Several students will be confirmed.

Senator E. L. Franck of Onslow County who has been elected President pro. tem. of the Senate. is an alumnus of the University.

The Committees on Education from the two branches of the Legislature will come up from Raleigh in a few days to inspect the University

W. P. Wooten '93, besides leading the Fourth Class at the U. S. Military Academy, has been further honored in being elected President of his class.

In the list of University alumni in the State Legislature published in a recent issue of the TAR HEEL, the name of Robert Lee Smith, '88, of Stanly County. was omitted.

Is our tennis tournament "to be or not to be" this year? Surely our baseball prospects are not so dazzling that we can afford to neglect all other branches of athletics.

The Glee, Mandolin and Banjo Clubs experienced very rough weather on their recent trip, and most of them returned with colds, coughs, and sore-throats.

E. P. Carr, Jno. F. Nooe, and W. C. Smith, of the Junior Class, have been initiated into the honorary society of Alpha Theta Phi. The name of E. C. Gregory, '96, should have been included in the list of those previously initiated published in the last TAR HEEL.

There is an epidempic of grip, colds and coughs in college. Among the victims are Mr. Wills, W. A. Graham, Dudley Linsey, D. Eatman, H. S. Lake, and A. B. Harrell.

We would like to inquire what the Hellenian editors are doing this year; so far we have heard nothing from them. Does this mean that they are going to wait until commencement again.

Among the alumni who showed favors upon the Glee Club on their recent trip, Julian E. Ingle '94 was prominent. "Jule" was a member of the '93 Glee Club and is now practicing law in Henderson.

Oil paintings of the Mason family from whom the University has received a legacy, have been hung in the Library. the portraits, four in number are the work of that young North Carolina artist, W. G. Randall, A. B., '84, who is now studying in Paris.

"Baby Ruth" is great on bets as the following will show: "Lewis, I'll think of a number and let you guess at it once and if you guess the number. I'll give you a fry of oysters and if you miss it, you give me a stew." but he couldn't see why the bet wasn't taken up, especially as he was giving odds as he said.

Out on the Glee Club trip a certain member of the club was talking to a young lady of coming to our next commencement, and he told her: "Oh, you must be sure to come, and have it cut real low in front and you'll get a rush, the lower the cut the bigger the rush."

The marshals for our coming Centennial commencement have already been appointed by Chief-marshal Shaffner. Those from the Dialectic Society are Jno. F. Nooe, Alfred H. Robbins and R. G. Shannonhouse. From the Philanthropic are Geo. H. Kirby, Alsbrook and Stanley.
