Mr. Ed. L. Williamson, of Graham, was in town yesterday.

Messrs. Clifton and Adderton have returned from Raleigh.

Mr. Chas. L. Abernathy, of Beaufort, has joined the Law Class.

H. Bingham returned from a visit to his home in Mebane Monday.

R. L. Thompson, ex-'93, has been on the Hill a few days the past week.

Mr. Jacobs, of Greensboro, representing H. H. Cartland, was here Saturday.

President Dred Peacock, of Greensboro Female College, arrived on the Hill last evening.

The lumber is being laid down for the infirmary to be erected on the northwest corner of the campus.

Mr. Lambkin, of Raleigh, and representing Whiting Bros., was on the Hill Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. Bradley Sanders, representing the Richmond Building and Loan Association, was on the Hill Monday.

Jack wrote a letter to his love, And filled it full of warm and keen desire; He hoped to raise a flame, and so he did; The lady put his nonsense in the fire.

Mr. Ed. Carter, representing Walters, the tailor, of Raleigh, has been on the Hill during the past week.

Go out on the ball-grounds and "holler" for the team afternoons, instead of loafing around smoking cigarettes and doing nothing.

E. B. McKenzie, ex-'96, of the firm of Moore & McKenzie, of Greensboro, is on the Hill with a full line of spring and summer clothing.

Bristol has decided that bricks are as hard and heavy around Chapel Hill as elsewhere, since trying to raise a tin can full of them with his foot.

The House Committee on appropriations has recommended that $20,000 be appropriated for the maintenance of the University for the ensuing year.

Mr. R. S. Busbee, who returned to the Hill a few days ago, leaves in the morning for his home in Raleigh, where he will prepare himself for West Point. May luck go with him.
