

WE CLIP part of a talk on Athletics from College Topics which shows that we are judged justly sometimes. The spirit spoken of is the one that always animates our contests, and we are gratified to see that it is justly appreciated. Same to you, Virginia.

"You can talk about your football victories all you want to," said the foot-ball crank, as he squared himself so as to block the door to the Law room, "but it's in defeat that a team shows up for just what it's worth—bitter, humiliating, almost crushing defeat. The team that can say nothing and stick it through, that can bear up under defeat, and keep right on playing plucky ball—that's the team that shows true grit, and I always feel like taking off my hat to it. It's adversity that tries men's souls, and that's a fact.

"And right along that line I'd like to remark a few remarks about North Carolina. I tell you those boys play plucky ball; they are manly and sportsmanlike about it, and I want 'em to know that we like 'em and respect 'em for it. I've seen several of our games with them. Now, last year and year before last, they realized that we outclassed them from the start. But when the score began to pile up was there any whining and kicking and leaving the field, like there was in the case of Trinity at Lynchburg, year before last? Any sulkiness and childish delaying of the game, like there was in the last game with Richmond College, last Fall? Any disgraceful squabbles, like that between Lehigh and Cornell, last year? Not much. They just played right on through, and owned up like men that they had been fairly beaten."

North Carolina! Here's one to you! Virginia wishes you better luck next time. May she have to hustle to beat you!

—College Topics.

K. A. Jones, ex-'93, has a thriving school at Helotes, Texas.

McKethan, law '91, is now a prominent lawyer of Savannah, Ga.

Mr. Henry Jerome Stockard has another beautiful sonnet in the March Century, which is meeting with the greatest praise. Mr. Stockard now has a national reputation as a poet, and the students of the University ever delight in his success.

Chapel Hill has been besieged with clothing men during the past week. They do not intend that we shall suffer for the lack of clothes, or that the class of '95 shall graduate without decent suits. We appreciate the pride they take in the University.

The examination period has come. For ten days all will be quiet. The Freshmen, Sophomors, and Juniors are laboring hard, while the Seniors have been granted those days for special purposes. Some of them will spend this time writing their final theses and orations, while others who are so fortunate as to have their final work completed will spend their time at their homes. Since all are busy professional loafers will find this time especially irksome. They will do a favor to the busy workers if they will congregate around the base ball field and there spend their times as best they can.

A Wonderful Invention.

Zoology teaches us that the hairs of the head are hollow, and contain an oil that gives them life. In clipping the hair with scissors, this hollow is left open, and the hair loses its life-giving properties.

I have a Machine named the Singeing Machine, which removes the hair and at the same time closes up the hollow causing the hair to retain its life-giving properties, and therefore stopping the hair from falling out or dying and giving it a soft life growth.

Call and examine this machine and have your hair singed.

Special attention given to dressing Ladies hair. Cutting hair done with exquisite and artistic skill by the old University Barber of twenty years experience.

The Singeing Machine is highly recommended by scientists throughout the country.
