

The Tar Heel

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Published Every Thursday by the General Athletic Association.

EDWARD W. MYERS, Editor-in-Chief.
GEORGE S. WILLS, A. B. KIMBALL,
ELISHA B. LEWIS, J. O. CARR,
M. H. YOUNT, J. C. ELLER.

DARIUS EATMAN.

Business Managers.

HARRY HOWELL, JNO. A. MOORE,
JAS. A. GWYN.

Entered at the post-office in Chapel Hill, N. C., as second-class mail-matter.

Mr. McGuire has concluded that the college papers are not the proper tribunal for settling the matter in dispute between us, as suggested in these columns some weeks ago.

The whole affair is to be left to a committee, and the charges will be referred to them. Exactly who will compose the committee has not yet been decided.

The Pan Hellenic Tennis Tournament is announced to begin on April 17th. This is the second annual tournament of the Association, which was organized last spring. The Association offers a prize of a handsome silver cup to the representatives of the Fraternity winning it three times in succession.

Now that the tournament is arranged why not have a tournament, both singles and doubles, open to the whole college upon payment of some slight entrance fee? There was one last spring and we should not let the custom lapse, as it affords not only interest to the mass of the students, whether tennis players or not, but it tends to advance the athletic interests of the college.

Then after playing this tournament, why not issue a challenge to all southern colleges to contest for the championship of the Southern States, and let the winners of the tournament representus therein?

A NEW BALL team has been organized in college during the past week, under the auspices of "Lishe" Lewis. It is to be known as the "Longs and the Shorts; the Fats and the Leans."

The personnel of the team, so far as now made public, consists of "Legs" Lindsey, "Vic" McAdoo, "Towser" Sharpe, "Hops" Price, "Jahi" Hubbard, "T. G." White, "Lishe", Lewis and Joe Graham, and there is still another place vacant for another midget. The team is to be run on a very original plan, every man to play all the nine positions, changing every inning, and though "Legs" and Joe Graham have been practising as battery, every man at the beginning of the game is to play the position of his choice, the best man to get the place.

Some tall ball-playing is expected.

Under the recent amendment allowing additional Editors for the University Magazine, H. MacCall '96, R. E. Coker '96, of the Di. Society; Harry Howell '95, and Leslie Weil '95, of the Phi. Society, have been chosen. The number contesting was large and some good work was submitted.

Whoever has charge of the Athletic Field ought to see that the wire-fence screen is fixed up properly, and then see that loafers are kept away from it.

Senior Debate.

In another column appears a contribution from a student of the University asking if some means may not be devised whereby Monday of Commencement may be enlivened by appropriate exercises which would make it more than a mere blank as at present, intervening between the Baccalaureate sermon and what are now Commencement exercises proper. The query is timely, and in this connection we venture to suggest that to render Commencement in a fuller measure expressive of the intellectual life of the University, some provision should be made for a Senior Debate, complementary to the exercises of the Senior Orations. The exercises of this debate might very well be on Monday of Commencement.

At present, the Senior Oratorical Contest is made a chief feature of Commencement. This is as it should be. The rigorous and inflexible though very just regulations governing the selections of participants in this contest justify the importance given these exercises on the Commencement program. But by no means all of the Seniors compete for these places; and of those who do compete only the six best orators are chosen. There is always a large element of every class who would not take part in this oratorical contest if places were voluntarily assured them. Many of this latter class are proficient debaters and would enter into the preparation of a Senior debate with the same ardor and zeal characteristic of the Senior Orator in the preparing of his Oration. Would not such a debate be quite as interesting and entertaining as the Senior orations? There would be as good talent to select these debaters from as was available to select the orators from; for indeed these exercises would attract men who would not offer themselves as candidates for an orator's place. The same regulations might of course govern the selection of debaters as orators.

The Literary Societies could very well afford the small outlay necessary to purchase a suitable Debater's Medal, for aside from the fact that an increasingly larger percentage of successive Senior Classes do not for one reason or another interest themselves in the oratorical contest, and should therefore have an option between competing for the Orators' or Debaters' Medal as against an option now of competing for the former or nothing; aside from this consideration we say, the life of the Literary Societies would be permanently quickened and stimulated, and thus would be strengthened the spirit in the University which would contemplate any decadence of the Literary Societies with greatest anxiety and solicitude.

More New Trustees,

The Legislature elected the following Trustees of the University, in addition to those already published: W. E. White, Alamance; V. S. Lusk, Buncombe; T. W. Babb, Perquimans; Angus Shaw, Roberson; P. H. Morris, Randolph; J. M. Thomas, Ruthersford.

Mr. Riddick, representing T. J. Lamb, of Durham, is on the Hill with a sample line of clothing, shoes, etc.

It has been a matter of comment for several evenings past that although Captain Oldham has requested all to keep back of the nettings in the ball park while the team is practicing, yet some students have seen fit to disregard his courteous and justifiable request. There are in this institution as in all others some who suffer under an exaggerated idea of their own importance, which is unhappily shared by any one else, and it is such as these who imagine that the request could not refer to them, as of course the team could not play at all unless they were within ten feet of the home plate. It is time that such sufferers from elephantiasis of the caput be taught to do as others who are in authority see fit to request when it is in their power to command.

It is such conduct as this which causes the manager to close the gate to all, and quite regretfully too, for the interest of the team should be considered beyond everything else.

A Nusaince.

There are some things in college that everybody recognizes as nuisances, and of course every one feels himself bound to help get rid of such troubles. It is very painful, however, to see men consider such things as balls nuisances and do their best to make them as scarce as possible. Well boys what do you think of such a man anyhow? To say the least he doesn't strike me favorably; its down right horse-thief stealing. It isn't the captain's business to watch three hundred men—presuming all to be rogues. This is about the state of affairs. Balls are stealthily borrowed (?) every afternoon and never returned. Boys, lets down any such practice. It can't exist unless sanctioned by us. The balls don't belong to the captain any more than they do to you. It is simply a trust imposed on him by the Athletic Association. You, as members of the Association, are bound to help him in his work.

Shooting Match.

There will be a "shooting match" between a picked team of the University of North Carolina, and a picked team of the Greensboro Gun Club, at the Ball Park in the city of Greensboro on Saturday, April 13, 1895, each team to be composed of five men, and each man to shoot at 50 blue rocks,—known trap, unknown angle.

This is the first appearance of the University Gun Club in public away from Chapel Hill, but they are all good shots, and the match will be a very interesting one indeed.

The young ladies of the Normal school and G. F. College will be out in full force to cheer the boys of the "White and Blue."

NOTICE.

All who are interested in Track Athletics will please meet me at the Gymnasium on Monday afternoon, at 3:30 p. m.

Let's try and get up some interest in this branch of our University athletics.

W. E. BREESE JR.,
Captain.

If Mr. White, the contractor, can get a few days of open weather he will soon have the new infirmary under roof.

Chapter of the II. K. A. fraternity has recently been established here.

For Sale.

ONE OF EASTMAN'S

B Ordinary Kodaks.

For rectangular pictures, 3½x4 inches; capacity, 24 exposures without reloading. Size of camera 4½x4½x9½ inches. Weight, 1 pound 13 oz.; length of focus of lens, 6 inches. Handsomely finished in natural wood.

The B Ordinary Kodak has a finder for locating the image, and revolving stops in the lens, which is of the universal focus type. The regular price of this camera at the factory is $10.00.

It can be bought from the TAR HEEL, loaded for 24 exposures, for $8.00.

Address

HARRY HOWELL,
Business Manager.

Chapel Hill, N. C.

Bullet Camera

is for sale by WEIL. You can procure all sorts of photographic material from 27 South Building.

To those contemplating a

European Trip

We recommend a medium size Camera

that can be

LOADED IN DAYLIGHT.

Such is the B Daylight Camera which takes 24 pictures without reloading.

Size of Picture taken 3½x4. Price of each picture finished by the Company is 15 cents.

Price of Kodaks $15.00. We recommend this Camera as by all means.

THE CHEAPEST

for the money.

A $400 Prize!

CUT THIS PICTURE OUT

It contains the faces of a father and three daughters: you see the father, where are the daughters? If your eyes are bright enough to find all three you are entitled to a reward

The proprietors of the National Seed Store will give FREE seven beautiful pictures, (Gems for decorating a home) as a reward to any one who can make out the three daughters' faces.

These pictures were superbly executed in colors by a firm of art publishers who were obliged to liquidate their business, their productions being too expensive for these hard times. The entire stock was purchased by us and what originally cost thousands of dollars will now be given away to attract attention to our NATIONAL COLLECTION OF FLOWER SEEDS, for the season of 1895. The published price of these pictures was $1.00 but we will send them (a selected series of seven) as a reward to every person finding and marking the three daughters' faces with an X and enclosing same with sixteen two-cent stamps for NATIONAL COLLECTION No. 1, containing an immense variety of the choicest and most beautiful flower seeds. If you purchase your seeds from us one season we will always have your orders. We guarantee perfect satisfaction or money refunded. $400 in Cash Premiums.—The person sending as above whose envelopes bears the earliest postmark will be given a $300 upright piano; to the second $25 in cash; to third $20; to fourth $15 to fifth $10; and to the next seven will be given $5 in gold. If able to find the three faces you should answer promptly; and enclose at once with 16-2ct. stamps and you will receive the valuable lot of pictures and seeds by return mail. Address, National Seed Co., Washington, D. C.

WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY

Entirely New. Abreast of the Times. A Grand Educator.

Successor of the "Unabridged."

Standard of the U. S. Gov't Printing Office, the U. S. Supreme Court and of nearly all the Schoolbooks.

Warmly commended by every State Superintendent of Schools, and other Educators almost without number.

A College President writes: "For ease with which the eye finds the word sought, for accuracy of definition, for effective methods in indicating pronunciation, for terse yet comprehensive statements of facts, and for practical use as a working dictionary, Webster's International excels any other single volume."

The One Great Standard Authority, So writes Hon. D. J. Brewer, Justice U. S. Supreme Court.

G. & C. MERRIAM CO., Publishers, Springfield, Mass., U. S. A.

Send to the publishers for free pamphlet. Do not buy cheap reprints of ancient editions.