Lafayette Wins in Raleigh. Score 9 to 1.

On the road again. We leave Charlotte about 7 p. m. Monday, en route for Raleigh. It is an all-night trip, and everybody dreads it. With Charlotte fading away in the dark, the boys fussing at Manager Turner for taking them away from "the girl they left behind," George Graham telling jokes, and "Lady Jane" reading Hoffdun's Psychology, we feel that "life is hardly worth living." Greensboro is reached at 10:30 and Captain Oldham has the team in their berths, asleep, in a dozen minutes. The writer of this slept quite well until the car started, but put in most of the time from then till morning in avoiding the manager's elbow on one side, and an eight-foot drop on the other. We reached Raleigh at 7:30 a. m. Tuesday morning without incident, unless we mention Ben Stanley's saunter around Durham during a half-hour's stop there at daybreak. It was raining and altogether dismal weather for ball on our arrival, but the rain stopped just before the game.

The Lafayette team arrived at 3 p. m. and drove straight to the Ball Park. Play was called at 4:30, U. N. C. at the bat, Mr. Perrin Busbee, of Raleigh, Umpire.

1st. Pat, as usual, leads off with a single over 2nd base. He is sacrificed to 2nd by Oldham, but carelessly overruns the bag, and is touched out by Rothermel. Bailey gets to first on Warne's wild throw. Stephens flies out to Clarke.

Lafayette—Warne hits to Slocomb, goes to first on error and continues to 2nd on error of Graham W., but is put out between 2nd and 3rd by Slocomb. Warbridge goes to first on fielder's choice. Barclay gets a pretty double, advancing Warbridge to 3rd. Pomeroy gives Slocomb a foul fly, and Criswell goes out from Slocomb to Bailey.

2nd. U. N. C. is playing slow, dead ball, and with great excuse if you remember what they have gone through since Monday morning. Gregory gets a single to right field and goes to 2nd on Warbridge's wild throw. Slocomb gets fielder's choice at 1st. Graham W. strikes out. Graham E. same. It is evident during this inning that the umpire is suffering from base-ball astigmatism, or something, from the great number of elevated balls that he labels as good and true strikes.

Lafayette—Rothermel, "Brownie," or "Shorty," catches one of Senator Hill's slow drops on the trade mark, and puts it over the close left fence for two sacks. Sigmon gives Bailey a pop fly. Miller gets a single to center, and Rothermel scores on a wild throw of the center fielder. Miller goes to 2nd also on it. Clarke gets fielder's choice, and Miller dies at the plate from Stanley to Oldham. Warne goes out from Stanley to Bailey.

3rd. Stanley flies out to Clarke, Oldie strikes out, and Bailey follows his captain's example.

Lafayette—Warbridge picks out four of the umpire's balls and trots to 1st. Barclay, Lafayette's famous full-back, flies out to Graham E. Pomeroy goes to 1st and Warbridge to 2nd on Hill's error. Criswell gets fielder's choice to 1st, and Warbridge is forced at 2nd from Slocomb to Gregory. Criswell goes to 2nd on a steal, and he and Pomeroy both score on Rothermel's second over-the-fence two bagger. Slocomb gets Sigmon's foul fly by a beautiful running catch over his shoulder.

4th. Stephens hits to Criswell, out at 1st. Gregory does the same and so does Criswell. Slocomb gets a slashing single over 3rd base and steals 2nd. Graham W. gets a base on balls, Graham E. flies out to Clarke.

Lafayette.—Miller goes out at 1st. Clarke strikes out, Warne out on grounder to Bailey.

5th. Hill hits the ball an awful crack and trots towards 1st with a satisfied home run look on his face, but Clarke, the crack Andover sprinter, gets it safely. Hill was flagged down at 2nd and persuaded that it had been really and truly caught. Stanley gets an over-the-fence two-bagger. Oldham flies out to Pomeroy, Bailey strikes out.

Lafayette.—Warbridge takes 1st on four balls, Barclay makes a single to right, Warbridge goes to 3rd and Barclay to 2nd on Oldham's passed ball. Pomeroy's single scores them. Pomeroy takes 3rd on fielder's choice, but sprains his ankle slightly and Walter takes his place. Criswell flies out to center field. Rothermel strikes out. Sigmon makes a single to right and Pomeroy (Walter) scores. Miller flies out to right field.

6th. Stephens goes out from Criswell to Sigmon, Gregory flies out to Walter, Slocomb out from Rothermel to Sigmon.

Lafayette.—Clarke strikes out. Warne goes to 1st on right fielder's muff and takes second on Bailey's error. Warbridge gets 1st on error of Slocomb. Barclay gets a beautiful hit to left. Bases full. Capt. Criswell rises to the emergency with a double, scoring two runs. Rothermel flies out to Graham W., and Sigmon goes out at 1st on grounder to Bailey, a difficult stop.

7th. Graham W. strikes out, Graham E. out at 1st, Hill same.

Lafayette.—Miller strikes out, Clarke same, Warne out at 1st.

8th. Stanley slashes a hit to right and steals 2nd. Oldham flies out to Miller. Bailey strikes out. Stephens makes a much needed single to right and Stanley scores the only run we get. Stephens steals 2nd. Gregory out at 1st.

Lafayette.—Warbridge flies out to Graham E. Barclay gets a single to center, but is doubled up on Walter's hit to Hill, to Gregory, to Bailey.

9th. Slocomb gets 1st. on Warne's error and steals 2nd. Graham W. gets four bad ones. Graham E. hits to Caswell who forces Graham W. at 2nd. Graham E. steals 2nd, Hill strikes out. Stanley out from Criswell to Sigmon.

Lafayette Wins Again—Score 4 to 3.

We leave Raleigh at 10:30 A. M. Wednesday for Durham, both teams, for we play the next two games of the series on our own grounds. We reach Durham about 12 o'clock in the rain, and take hacks for Chapel Hill. After the tedious ride and the week's experience the players could hardly be expected to play good ball but they do it nevertheless.

Play is called at 4 p. m. by Mr. Steele, '95, with N. C. at the bat.

1. Stanley, for the first time this year, fails to lead off with a hit, and goes out from Clarke to Sigmon. Oldham takes base on four balls, but is forced out at 2d on Bailey's grounder to Warbridge. Bailey steals 2d with a beautiful slide. Stephens flies out to Walter.

Lafayette—Warne gives Oldy a foul fly. Warbridge gets a scratch hit. Barclay strikes out. Walbridge is forced out at 2d by Criswell's grounder to Slocomb.

2. Collier goes out at 1st from Rothermel to Sigmon. Gregory lines the ball to left for three bases. Slocomb out of foul fly to Miller. Graham W. goes out at 1st from Rothermel to Sigmon.

Lafayette—Collier makes short work of the Pennsylvanians this time. Rothermel strikes out. Walter same. Sigmon out from Gregory to Bailey.

3. Graham E. has his liner taken in by Walbridge. Stanley takes four bad ones and steals 2d, goes to third on Oldham's sacrifice, but fails to score, for Baily flies out to Miller.

Lafayette—Miller fails to see Collier's speedy curves in time to hit the ball, though he tries manfully for three times. Clarke, the great sprinter, coacher, pitcher and butter-maker from Delaware county, N. Y., does likewise. Warne, however, changes the looks of things with a long drive over the right fence. Walbridge out from Gregory to Bailey.

4. Stephens gets a scratch hit and scores on Collier's double to centre. Collier takes 3d on Barclay's error. Gregory out from 2d to 1st. Collier scores on wild pitch of Clarke. Slocomb gets base on wild throw from 3d and steals 2d by a beautiful slide. Graham W. strikes out. Graham E. hits a long one to Warne that would have been a hit but for great fielding.

Lafayette—Barclay gets a double over 2d. Criswell gives Stanley a pop fly. Rothermel strikes out. Walter also.

5. Stanley hits easy fly to Rothermel. Oldham out out at first. Bailey out, hit by batted ball.

Lafayette—Sigmon takes base on balls and scores on Miller's triple between left and center. Clarke again strikes out. Clarke is a prime favorite with the grand stand and bleachers when on the coaching lines. Warner flies out to Graham W., who throws Miller out at the plate.

6. Stephens out from Clarke to Sigmon. Collier repeats his two-base act. Gregory gets a scratch hit which advances Collier to 3rd. This was where we ought to have won the game. Slocomb fails to hit safely and goes out from Criswell to Sigmon. Graham W. strikes out.

Lafayette.—Walbridge strikes out. Barclay makes a hit over short. Criswell flies out to Graham W. Rothermel hits pop fly to Slocomb.

7. Graham goes out from Walbridge to Sigmon. Stanley sees an easy one and fails to avoid it, steals 2nd and goes to 3rd on Oldham's out from Rothermel to Sigmon. Bailey takes base on balls and Stanley gets out at the plate on attempted steal. This was the fault of the coaching.

Lafayette—Walter out from Gregory to Bailey. Sigmon strikes out. Miller takes four balls and Clarke out on line hit to Stanley.

8. Stephens bunts the ball for the first time in his life, and beats it out. Collier out on foul fly to Walbridge. Stephens out on attempted steal to 2nd. Gregory makes a single and Slocomb flies out to Warne.

Lafayette.—Warne gets 4 balls. Walbridge makes a single on which Walbridge takes two bases. Barclay out from Slocomb to Bailey. Criswell gets a single, scoring Warne and Walbridge. Rothermel gets base on balls. Criswell tries to steal 3rd and is thrown out by Oldham.

9. Graham W. out from 3rd to 1st. Graham E. gets a base on a hit—hit by a pitched ball—and Pat gets another one on 4 balls. Oldham does the same. Clarke is evidently rattled but his nerve finally pulls him through for nobody scores. Bailey goes out at first and Stephens likewise, but Graham E. scores on Bailey's out, and the score is 4 to 3 against us.
