

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. J. Norwood Hill has been initiated into Theta Nu Epsilon.

Mr. Jno. A. Moore left for Oxford this morning.

H. Bingham left for a visit to his home Friday.

Lehigh will play Trinity in Durham today.

The Gun Club is going to invest in a new electric trap.

The Circus in Durham Thursday drew a small crowd from the Hill.

Mr. Bradsher 'ex 96, has entered the law class.

We regret to announce the illness of Dr. Carroll.

We will play Lehigh here Saturday and again in Greensboro Monday. Let everybody turn out.

Mr. Lampkin, representing Whiting, Bros., of Raleigh, is on the Hill with his spring samples.

Mr. Sneed, of Durham, came over last night with his sample line of clothing, furnishing goods, etc.

A crowd started for Durham Wednesday morning but somehow they didn't go, did you hear about it?

In Chem. Laboratory—Stamps Howard wanted some Citron from Dr. Baskerville, to make some citric acid.

Messrs. Clem. G. Wright, E. L. Gilmer and Jno. Schenck, of Greensboro, witnessed the game with Lafayette on Wednesday.

All persons owning game cocks, bull terriers or any kind of fighting stock will find a good market here at present.

Prof. Edwin Mimms was the guest of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity while on the Hill last week.

The Glee, Mandolin and Banjo clubs leave Monday for Raleigh, where they give their Easter concert on that night.

The Normal and G. F. C. girls will take their geological trip to Pilot Mountain next Saturday. How about U. N. C. Will she be there?

All those who have not paid up their subscriptions will greatly oblige the business managers by doing so at once. We need some money badly.

The announcement for the Summer School for teachers has been posted. It will begin June 25th, and continue until July 26th under the superintendence of Prof. Alderman.

Dr. Manning—Mr.—what is kid-napping? Mr.—It is a child sleeping under a tree.

again Dr. Manning—Mr. Rollins why is it that gaming laws have been passed in all counties? Mr. Rollins, For the prevention of cruelty to animals,—and the class laughed.

The account of the Gun Club shoot with the Greensboro and Charlotte teams will appear in the next issue. The copy for the article was lost in the office, and the loss was not discovered until too late to remedy it for this issue.

Dr. BATTLE CALLS our attention to a mistake in the World Almanac, which says that Col. George F. Davidson, '23, is the oldest living graduate of the University of North Carolina. Col. Davidson is dead and Dr. Armand John De Rosset, '24, is now the oldest living graduate.

Base Ball.

The first game with Lehigh will be called in the Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Admission, 50 cents.

Notice!

All of Faber's photographs will arrive in a few days and can be gotten immediately. The money must be paid down upon receiving the pictures.

JNO. A. MOORE.

Mr. A. H. LONDON, '65, of Pittsboro, has accepted the invitation to deliver at Commencement an oration on "The University During the War." He entered college in 1861, and graduated in 1865, so he is fully acquainted with that portion of the institution's history.

DR. STEPHEN B. WEEKS, of North Carolina, now an attache of the national Bureau of Education, is a man of growing reputation. He has rescued much of the history of the State, and has re-written, in a very attractive style, much that was already known. His work has attracted attention to him from many of the cities of the country and from various seats of learning, the latest proof of which statement is that at a special meeting, last evening, of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia, he was to have read a paper entitled, "Southern Quakers and Slavery."

—Charlotte Observer.

Dr. Weeks is a graduate of this University, class of '86.

"'Tis strange that it is always easy
For a man when he is flirting, you know,
To swear to a woman he loves her,
By all that is above and below.
But when he is truly in earnest,
Tell me the reason, I pray,
'Tis awfully hard to utter
The words he fain would say?"
She replied, as her dimples deepened,
"The reason is simple, forsooth:
'Tis because it's awfully hard, sir,
For a man to utter the truth."—Ex.
Her face would stop a clock, 'tis true
For 'tis a face so passing fair,
That even time would pause to view
The beauty that's imprinted there.

The preacher's a saint and the gambler's a sinner,
Yet both are alike at the heart's inner core;
When either you find quite content, be certain
He held a full house but the evening before.
