

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

H. Bingham, is away on a visit to Greensboro.

The pictures taken by Mr. J. H. Faber, have arrived.

Dr. Hume delivered a lecture in Salisbury last week.

Mr. Hugh Miller of Goldsboro, was on the Hill last week.

The Historical society held its regular meeting Monday night.

Holiday was given Wednesday on account of the senior speaking.

Mr. Looce, of Yale, lectured before the Y. M. C. A., Monday night.

The Glee Club returned Saturday, from a very pleasant trip to Asheville.

We regret to announce the resignation of Mr. J. C. Eller, from our editorial board.

Sol. Mason ex '96 also is taking a business course at Oak Ridge is captain of the team.

Messrs White and Saunders were on the Hill again last week selling building and loan stock.

Dr. Winston has been confined to his room for over a week. We hope to see him out again soon.

Marvin Pickard was on the Hill Wednesday. He is business manager of the Oak Ridge team.

All of the gymnasium apparatus has been moved from the hall and preparations for commencement are being made.

The game with Oak Ridge resulted in a score of 12 to 0. This is the second year that they have failed to cross the plate.

All of the University buildings have been repainted lately. The effect has been to entirely destroy their classic time-honored appearance and make them somewhat resemble the outbuildings on a farm.

IN ANSWER to our appeal for a bowling alley, Lawyer Peckham says he would like to build one for University Inn, if the statute forbidding it could be repealed. He also says that he expects to build a large Commons Hall on his own grounds.

Glee, Mandolin and Banjo Club Concert.

The Glee, Mandolin and Banjo Clubs gave their second concert on the Hill for this year in Gerrard Hall on Friday night, April 19th. The Glee Club's singing was not all that could be expected, but the Mandolin and Banjo Club's selections were excellent, the Banjo Club's particularly, they receiving repeated encores every time. With but one or two exceptions, the programme was the same as that given before.

University Club German.

ON FRIDAY night, April 18th, the University German Club gave its annual Spring German in the gymnasium. It was a beautiful german, well led and well attended, and everybody appeared to be having a splendid time as leader Turner led them through the 'wondering mazes of the dance—that is everybody except the boys who happened to get left. Below are the couples:

C. R. Turner, Leader, with Miss Carrie Holt; W. G. Clarke, with Miss Alice Collins; R. T. S. Steele, with Miss Henrietta Collins; W. A. Graham, with Miss Peebles; E. W. Myers, with Miss Graham; M. Broyden, with Miss S. Busbee; R. L. Gray, with Miss L. Busbee; J. Stevenson, with Miss Hinsdale; W. S. Howard, with Miss Stronach; C. R. Dey, with Miss Pescud; P. J. Thomas, with Miss Clarke; M. Schenck, with Miss Fuller; W. E. Breese, with Miss Scott; E. C. Gregory, with Miss Atkinson. L. J. P. Cutter, with Miss Harris; H. Miller, with Miss Bell; W. Brem, with Miss McAuley.

After the dance supper was served at the University Inn.

Happily Married.

In Raleigh on Wednesday April 24th, at Christ's Church, Dr. Charles Baskerville was united in the bonds of matrimony to Miss Mary Boylan Snow, by the Rev. Dr. Marshall.

The church was filled with numbers of the friends of the young couple who were about to set out on their life voyage together and when the fateful words were spoken which made the twain one, every heart in the throng went out in glad wishes to the newly made couple.

At half past three, there burst from the organ the swelling notes of the Lohengrin wedding march, and the ushers, Messrs. Hugh L. Miller of Wilmington, George Graham, of Hillsboro, E. W. Myers of Washington, George Snow, W. W. Williamson, Perrin Busbee, Howard Thomas and V. H. Boyden, of Raleigh, marched from the rear of the church down either aisle, to the chancel where they stood during the ceremony.

Following the ushers, came Miss Adelaide Snow, sister of the bride and maid of honor. She was followed by the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother Mr. W. B. Snow.

Dr. Baskerville, with his best man Mr. Michael Hoke, met the bride at one altar and the beautiful words of the Episcopal marriage ceremony having been spoken, they were pronounced man and wife, and, to the strains of the wedding march, Dr. and Mrs. Baskerville walked forth into a world which THE TAR HEEL hopes may hold nothing worse for them than sunshine and roses.

The bridal party drove at once to the depot where the bride and groom, 'midst' showers of rice, congratulations and 'kerchief' wavings, took the afternoon train for Chapel Hill, where we hope they may long make their home.

Meeting of Tar Heel Board.

The editors met Thursday evening for the purpose of electing some one to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the resignation of Mr. Howell. Mr. Gwyn of the present board was elected to take the place of Mr. Howell, as business manager, and relieved of his duties as local editor.

Mr. Eller then presented his resignation, which was accepted and Messrs. Jno. Andrews and W. W. Horne were elected to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of Messrs. Howell and Eller, and will take charge of the local department.

The editors will hereafter meet promptly at 4:30 at the room of the editor in chief every Saturday afternoon to propose work for the next issue, and all copy must be in by 12 o'clock Tuesday.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

The Salisbury Herald says:

A more entertaining and interesting lecture was never delivered here than that of Dr. Hume. It was a literary gem. The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table was shown to the audience in a different light than that from which he had heretofore regarded. He spoke for more than an hour and was interesting from first to last.

The work done by Mr. J. H. Faber, for the University will come Friday night. All those having pictures ordered will please call at my room for them. No one can get any pictures unless he pays for them when gotten.

The latest horological wonder is the "Trump"—a new tool-made watch, American duplex movement, guaranteed a perfect time-keeper, and sold for $2.50. The manufacture of such a watch is only possible when automatic machine equipment is perfect, and operatives are trained by long experience—it is possible by only one concern in the world, and you can readily guess which it is—The Waterbury Watch Co. This "TRUMP" has just been put on the market in opposition to the poorly made "Clock Watches," now flooding the country. CALL and SEE them.

Respectfully,
W. B. SORRELL.
