

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

foot-ball.

Mr. Thompson, '99 was in Raleigh the past week.

Everybody come out to the A. & W. game.

At last it has rained and the streets are open again.

Mr. Phillips '99, who has been in Raleigh for some time, is improving.

Messrs. Carr and Newby spent the day in Durham.

Mr. Frank Stronach, Ex. '95 has been on the Hill during the last week.

The wires for the electric lights are being put into all the stores and hotels of the village.

Mr. Jas. A. Gwyn and John Andrews attended a German in Greensboro last week.

Mrs. Geo. Woodward of Durham is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. W. Woodward, who is quite sick.

Mr. W. D. Merritt has returned from the Hill and will play Right End of the Varsity Foot Ball Team.

Chapel Hill is overflowing with clothiers, now is the time to get a bargain.

The Library is indebted to Congressman W. F. Stroud for a valuable donation of public documents.

Mr. Peter John, ex-'96, Med. '95, has entered the Medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Wm. B. Snow, '93, Law '94, was on the Hill Sunday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Baskerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of Baltimore, are visiting their son, Dr. H. W. Wilson, our professor of Biology.

Mr. Malcolm Boyden, Med '95, has entered the Medical College of the University of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Phillips, '99, who has been quite ill for some time, is rapidly convalescing and we hope to see him out in a few days.

Mr. W. E. Lindsay, one of our most enterprising merchants, is erecting a large store house on Main St.

Mr. Yarborough is the last addition to the University. In addition to his College work he will assist in the electric power house.

Dr. Hume preached an interesting and instructive sermon to a large congregation in the Baptist Church on last Sunday.

Mr. Reddick of Durham, representing Lamb & Co., are on the Hill this week with an elegant line of samples.

Mr. Thos. S. Rollins, who spent a few days with us after standing his Examination before the Supreme Court, has gone to his home in Asheville.

All the Freshmen who desire honors bestowed upon them will please hand their names to some member of the Soph Class before next Saturday.

Chapel Hill is by no means asleep. We are soon to have six arc lights on Main Street. Incandescent lights are being put in nearly all the residences, stores and hotels.

Quarterly communion services will be held in the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Mr. Thos. Rollins, '93, who received his license to practice law left here Saturday for Asheville where he expects to locate for the practice of his profession.

Mr. Frank Cooke, ex '96, passed his entrance examination in June last and is now a cadet of the United States Military Academy.

Mr. Will Williams of Asheville, the great V. M. I. guard, has entered the law class, and will play foot-ball. He is a valuable addition to the team.

Dr. J. A. Cuningam spent last week in town. He conducted a Quarterly Conference in the Methodist church on Thursday night, and preached to a large congregation Sunday.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Ward has fitted up a restaurant opposite Pritchard's store where fresh oysters and meals can be had at all hours. See his ad. in another column.

A reception was given to the students of the University who are members of the Presbyterian Church at the Manse on last Friday evening. It was thoroughly enjoyed by all who had the good fortune to attend.

Another prominent candidate for the Varsity has been added to the already large list of foot-ball men. Mr. Hurley, of the Law class. Although he has not been playing but two or three days he is somewhat of the Kirkpatrick genus and is rapidly developing into a prominent man.

Our new electric lights Monday-night served the purpose of illustrating how strong is the force of habit. The lights were turned off at twelve that night and an absent minded young man in the South Building who had contracted the oil borrowing habit rushed into his neighbor's room with—Say, can't you lend me a little electricity?

IT IS AN honor well and meritoriously paid in selecting Prof. E. A. Alderman, one of the ablest men in the faculty, to be one of the four prominent speakers on Education Day at the Atlanta Exposition. The subject, which he will doubtless treat in the best of style, is "Higher Education."

Ward's New Restaurant,
Opposite Pritchard's Store is the headquarters for Fresh York River Oysters and Meals at all hours. Few Regular table boarders can be accommodated.
