Time of the Golden Rod.

Whispering winds kissed the hills of September,
Thistledown phantom drift over the lawn;
Red glows the ivy, like a ghost-lighted ember,
Shrouded in mist breaks the glow-coming down;

Sun-lighted vestas the woodland discloses,
Sleeping in shadow the still lake reposes,
Gone is the Summer, its sweets and its roses—
Harvest is past and Summer is gone.

Piaintively sighing, the brown leaves are falling,
Sadly the wood dove mourns all the day
In the dim starlight the katydid calling,
Hush into slumber the book and its song,
Gone are the sowers and ended their weeping,
Gone are the gleaners and finished their reaping,
Blossoms and bees with the song bird are sleeping—
Harvest is past and summer is gone.

The TAR HEEL is in receipt of the following letter which will doubtless be of interest to many of its readers who expect to attend the Atlanta Exposition:

TO THE GREEK LETTER MEN OF THE UNITED STATES:

Greeting:—In view of the fact that hundreds of graduates and under-graduates, who are members of the different college fraternities, will visit Atlanta during the Cotton States and International Exposition it has been decided by the local members, to arrange for a Pan-Hellenic Congress and Greek Letter Day at the Exposition.

At a meeting of the Atlanta contingency, the eighteenth day of November was selected as the most suitable date for a Greek conclave.

About the general programme, the following features of attraction have been agreed upon: In the morning from 10:00 to 1:00 o'clock will be the Congress in the auditorium at the Exposition grounds; speeches will be delivered by some of our most eloquent orators, and papers will be read by those who have given special study to fraternity issues and the general subject of Pan-Hellenism; in the afternoon from 3 o'clock to 5 o'clock there will be a great foot-ball game between the two leading teams of the South at that time; in the evening from 7:30 to 10:30 there will be a Greek play; at 10:30 begins the grand banquet, where, at least, eight hundred loyal Greeks will sit down to a royal feast.

All patriotic Greeks are most cordially invited to attend, and also to co-operate in the final perfection of this scheme for the promotion of good fellowship among the members of the various college fraternities. Those who expect to accept this invitation are requested to send in their names and addresses as soon as possible, together with the sum of $3.00, which is the amount necessary to cover the costs of the banquet. All remittances must be paid to Mr. Henry W. Grady, 36 Ponce de Leon avenue, Atlanta, Ga.
