

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Hurah for Foot-Ball.

Mr. Frank S. Spruill, of Louisburg spent Sunday on the Hill.

Mr. R. R. Bridgers, of Durham, is in town for a few days.

Mr. Jno. Andrews, '97, returned from Raleigh on Monday evening.

Mr. Phil Cocke and Erwin of the class of '99 returned from Atlanta Monday.

Miss. Margaret McCall and Nannie Wood, of the Normal and Industrial are visiting in town.

Messrs. J. C. Eller and James A. Gwyn, of the class of '96, went with the team to Atlanta.

Mr. Wm. G. Clarke, ex-'97, spent a few days with friends in the University during the past week.

Messrs. Thomas and Steele of the Med. Class accompanied the team on the Southern trip.

Mr. Wm. Rand Kenan, Superintendent of the University electric plant, has returned from a visit to Atlanta.

Miss. Mina Brem, who has been visiting in the city for a few days, left this week for her home in Charlotte.

Rev. A. H. Merritt, of Trinity College, will preach in the Methodist Church next Sunday, at 11:30. A. M.

The Regular University meeting of the Philological Club was held in the English Latin Room, on Tuesday evening, October 29.,

Pres. Winston and Prof. Alderman have returned from Atlanta, where they have been attending the National Congress of Education.

Post Master Kirkland has remodelled and added to the Post-office, making it much more convenient and more of an ornament to the town than it formerly was.

Mr. Miller, of Greensboro, who was expected to hold services in the Episcopal Church on last Sunday, could not fill his engagement on account of illness in his family.

Mr. McNeil, of the University Law Class, has located in Wilkesboro, N. C., his native place, for the practice of his profession. The TAR HEEL wishes him an unbounded success.

Within the last two weeks, a good number of valuable books have placed in the library. Those interested in Philosophy will find the addition in that department especially interesting.

Mr. W. G. Randall, A. B., '84., has made for the office of the Secretary of the Navy, a copy of the portrait of James C. Doblin which hangs in the Phi. Hall. The Navy Department authorized Mr. Randall to do the work.

Cards are out for the marriage of Alfred Moore Scales, Esq., of Greensboro, to Miss Bessie, daughter of Col. John D. Taylor, of Wilmington, Wednesday, November 6th. It will take place in the First Presbyterian Church at Wilmington.—Charlotte Observer.

(Mr. Scales is a University man.)

ON TO RICHMOND.

See the Great Game, Cheer the White and Blue, and spend a Pleasant Thanksgiving.

We are very glad to see a movement on foot to run a special train to Richmond on Thanksgiving day. Such enterprises as this always bring about good results, as can be seen from the scores of previous years. When U. N. C. played U. Va. in Atlanta in '92, we had the crowd with us and won. Since that time Va. has had the crowd, in Richmond, in consequence of which she has won.

It is very evident from this that the crowd plays an important part in the result of a game, therefore the Championship of the South this year rests in a great measure with the student body of U. N. C. We do not believe that the student body will fail us in this. The fare is very low, only $5.50 the round trip, if a sufficient number (100) will go. In order to get these low rates the work must be done now. Therefore find out immediately if you can go and report to the managers, Messrs. Gregory and Bellamy. Remember that every individual helps to swell the number. Those who take this trip will miss no college duties, as the train will return to Chapel Hill 8 o'clock Friday morning.

Harvard-Princeton.

Harvard and Princeton have at last arranged a foot-ball game to be played at Princeton on Nov. 2; also arrangements have been made for another game to be played next year at Cambridge.

The News has the following statement in regard to the rules and arrangements: In the meeting between the two captains there was no disagreement as regards eligibility or rules. Both made liberal concessions, Princeton following the Harvard-Pennsylvania-Cornell code of rules with but few exceptions. The most important field rule, perhaps, the one in regard to a free catch. The man who catches the ball must not be approached by any one nearer than five yards at the time of the catch, and if he "traps" the ball as in foot-ball he may run with it. The officials will be the same prescribed by Harvard rules, the umpire and referee to be approved by graduate advisers of both colleges.

IN MEMORIAM.

UNIVERSITY OF N. C.
Dialectic Hall, Oct. 26th, 1895.

WHEREAS, The all-wise Providence in His inscrutable wisdom, has taken from our midst and from the active duties of this life, our late fellow-member, John Thomas Farrell, and

WHEREAS, It is the duty and privilege of this Society to show due recognition of the worth and virtues of its members, therefore be it

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the decree of Him who doeth all things well, we are not the less grieved at the loss of our worthy brother, in which affliction we are upheld by the hope given us in his noble life. Be it also

Resolved, That we have lost by his death a most loyal member, the University an honored alumnus, and his associates a warm friend. Be it further

Resolved, That the Dialectic Society does hereby tender its deep and heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family and friends. Be it finally

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the afflicted family, to the State press, and to the University publications, and that a copy be spread upon the minutes of the Society.
