

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr John Andrews '97 is in Atlanta.
Mr. W. J. Weaver of the Medical Class went up to Mebane last week on a hunting expedition.

The foot ball team leaves for Charlotte, N. C. where they play the A. and M. of Va. on to-morrow.

Mr Earnest McKenzie, Ex. '96, of Greensboro, was married on Tuesday night to Miss Catherine Scales.

The prayermeetings in the various churches in town were led by students of the University on Wednesday night.

Rev. Mr. Miller, of Greensboro, conducted services in the Episcopal Church on Sunday.

Mr. V. A. Batchelor '96 saw the game with Washington and Lee in Lynchburg on Saturday,

Rev. Mr. Hawks preached to a large congregation in Gerrard Hall on last Sunday evening.

The Y. M. C. A. celebrated the week of prayer during the past week.

The meetings were well attended and ably conducted.

Mr. F. A. Gudger has returned to his home in Asheville on account of ill health. We hope to see him back again soon.

Dr. Winston was President of the recent Convention held by the Representative of the leading Southern Colleges and Preparatory Schools in Atlanta last week.

Messrs. P. G. Graham and R. T. S. Steele were in Hillsboro during the past week to attend the wedding of Webb of Nashville, Tenn., to Miss Isabella Graham.

The manager of the Scrub team is in correspondence with the manager of the Wilmington foot ball team in reference to arranging a game between the two teams to be played in Wilmington on Thanksgiving.

Prof. Hawks lectured in the Chapel on Sunday night before the Y. M. C. A. His subject was "The fast young man, the slow young man, and the young man who goes just night". It was a practical lecture to young men, illustrated from the Bible and life.

Mr. John Watson, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Chapel Hill, died at his home on College street about seven o'clock this morning. The death of Mr. Watson was very unexpected to every one, he having been able to be down town yesterday afternoon. Heart failure is thought to have been the cause of his sudden death.

Many there are to mourn his death, every citizen knows that Chapel Hill has lost a good citizen and every student in the University who knew him feels the loss of a friend to the student body.

Mr. Watson has been running a boarding house here for many years and by his many kindnesses to the boys has endeared himself to many of the old Alumni who will regret with us his sudden departure. The people of our village have also recognized the merit of Mr. Watson, having made him their head officer for many successive times.

Dr Hume of the Department of English Language and Literature has been invited to deliver one of the Anniversary addresses before the National Society of Religious Education at the special celebration in Washington D. C. This is the society which held the Southern Biblical Assembly at Asheville during the last summer. He will also deliver one of the addresses before the Young People's Union of the Baptist State Convention in Greensboro in December.

Dr. Hume's reputation as a gentleman of wide scholarly attainments and ability is national. For depth of thought, power of expression, and finished style he is unexcelled as a speaker. His address will, no doubt, be an interesting and instructive feature of the program of both these occasions.

Hawks on Hash.

Prof. A. W. Hawks, of New York, spent Saturday and Sunday on the Hill. The Young Men's Christian Association had engaged him to give his lecture, "Hawks on Hash," Saturday night. As his work here last March, when secured by the Di. Society, met with such success, quite a large crowd heard him again.

His lecture was very good and, his witticisms followed each other in such rapid succession that before getting over the effect of one, another was upon you. We are glad our college life is thus interrupted with entertainments, and think the effort made to secure good lecturers should be supported.

On Sunday morning, Mr. Hawks conducted services in the Baptist church, and at night a union service of all churches was held in the chapel. Despite the rainy weather, large audiences heard him at both places. His work there was not only entertaining but thoroughly helpful.

The Moot Court.

The Moot Court held its regular weekly session at the Law Room last Saturday night, Judge Hartsell wearing the Judicial ermine with marked credit.

The case was an important one, Havey vs. Egypt Coal Mining Co., for negligence. The Pl'tf. had hurt a leg while in the employ of the Co. and was suing them to recover $3,000 damages.

The Pl'tf. was represented by Messrs. Warren & Hare, the Df'ts. by Messrs. Dockery & Dalby.

The Moot Court is very interesting and unusually well attended. Some of the cases are well conducted by these embryonic lawyers. The students are always welcome and those intending to study law should acquaint themselves with the customs of the Court as early as possible.
