Vanderbilt defeated Auburn Saturday at Nashville, after a close game resulting in a score of 9 to 6. Connell's goal from the field was the feature of the game.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

BY THE GOVERNOR.

The people of North Carolina have much for which to be thankful to Almighty God in the year which has just past. The earth has brought forth abundantly of the food products in response to our labors, the prices of raw materials have advanced, industrial progress has been awakened in our midst and the future looks brighter than the past few years of disaster and want.

Our people should be thankful for the blessings vouchsafed to them, and in grateful remembrance of His goodness and in obedience to our laws and the time honored custom of our forefathers, devote one day of the year to His service.

Therefore, I, ELIAS CARR Governor of North Carolina, do hereby appoint THURSDAY, THE 28th DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1895, as a day of solemn and public Thanksgiving to God for past blessings and of supplication for His continued kindness and care over us as a State and Nation.

I earnestly request every citizen of this great Commonwealth to lay aside his usual business, assemble either in the Churches or around the fireside, and make this Festival a day of Prayer and Thanksgiving. Let not the day be devoted to amusements, but with grateful hearts give praise to God for the preservation of our liberties and for the advancement of our Nation in prosperity and greatness.

This State has been the home of freedom and the abiding place of a virtuous and noble people.

Let not the day pass without acknowledgement of all these blessings; and let us remember in our prayers and offerings the charitable institutions of the State, the wounded and needy soldiers, the orphan, the poor and afflicted, and by substantial giving show forth the thankfulness of our hearts.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of North Carolina to be affixed. Done at the City of Raleigh, this 14th of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and ninety-five, and in the one hundred and twentieth year of Our American Independence.

ELIAS CARR.

By the Governor:
S. F. TELFAIR,

Private Secretary.
