

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Judge Ewart was on the Hill Monday.

Golf and Tennis rules at Long's only 10c.

Messrs. Shaw of Hartshorne and Bowling of Rougemont, have lately registered in the University.

One of Chapel Hill's popular young merchants was in Chatham county on Sunday, "visiting friends."

Mr. G. G. Stephens, President of the Athletic Association, goes to Asheville Saturday on business.

Mr. Harry Lake has returned from Newberne Fish and Game Fair, and reported a glorious time.

Miss Mattie Kirkland has returned from a several days visit to friends and relatives Durham.

The inmates of the Infirmary are rapidly becoming less numerous, and the measles agony has abated considerably.

Miss Sallie Farrington of Riggsbee, and Miss Nellie Eubanks of Gath, made a pleasant visit to the Hill on Tuesday.

Rev. Jesse Cunningham preached in the Methodist Church Friday night, and his sermon was an interesting one as usual.

Miss Fannie Wilson is recovering very rapidly and her many friends will be glad to know that she is nearly able to be out.

Prof. Gore is making decided improvement on his already beautiful premises. The yard is being enlarged, and fences rearranged.

Rev. Mr. Ferguson of Waynesville Va. has declined the call to the Baptist Church, and the good brethren are looking about for another pastor.

Marvin Pickard came home last week to rest a while and drink once more from the town pump. He returned to Oak Ridge on Monday to his studies.

Since the Marshals have been elected they have set to work in a systematic way, and they desire every student's order for invitations as soon as possible.

For the sake of many who anxiously wait for Easter and don't know when it comes, we have consulted the almanac, and find that the date is April, 5th.

Quite a number were over from Durham last Friday night to see the "Little Rebel" played. Among others were the familiar faces of Col. J. S. Carr and family, and his brother Dr. Carr.

Some rowdy ruffians broke two of the electric lights on the street Saturday night, and terrorized the town generally. Of course the officers of the law didn't know who the parties were.

Mr. Peacock of Goldsboro is "subbing" for engineer Murphy, who is sick. We knew there was a change the first day, from the way the whistle blew at every hog path and hay stack.

As THE TAR HEEL goes to press the University Dramatic Club appears in Greensboro. No doubt

"The Little Rebel" will be as great a success there as it was here, and our best wishes go with them.

The Seniors are rejoicing over the fact that their examination will come 10 days earlier than those of the other classes. The extra time will be devoted to theses and the like.

Prof. Wicker was in the village a few days ago, and was in good spirits over the the prosperous condition of his school at Damascus.

Miss Emma Harward's music classes are one of the features, and they propose to give an entertainment soon.

Rev. J. T. Gibbs D. D. of Rockingham will lecture in Gerrard Hall on Saturday night Mar. 14 and will preach on Sunday night at the same place. The Lecture will be free.

It is gratifying that the students and villagers will have the opportunity of hearing this gifted speaker.

Gilreth and Co. of Charlotte, the largest shoe dealers in the State will have a complete line of Spring and Summer samples here in a few days, consisting of latest styles Patent Leather, Russian, Canvass and Calf Shoes, also Tennis and Pumps.

Look out for them.
