

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A few straw hats have appeared. Mr. J. P. Whitehead has been initiated into Theta Nu Epsilon.

Stop and see Mahler in his new apartments, Raleigh, N. C.

H. H. Cartland will be here next Tuesday. Call and see his samples at the A. T. O. Hall.

Mr. J. O. Carr, of the staff, was very sick with the measles, but we are glad to see that he is out again.

Miss Nola Woodard, of Durham came over Saturday night to spend a few days with her annt, Mrs. Norwood.

Sanford requests that all "tramps" will stay away from his room in the future as he does not wish to shoot anyone.

Dr. Winston lectured in the Episcopal Church in Charlotte on Wednesday night, and "did us proud" as usual.

Mr. Isacc Manning has returned home from Brooklyn to spend his vacation with his father, Dr. Manning.

The Shakespere Club met on Tuesday, instead of Thursday night as reported last week. Mistakes will happen.

Dr. Baskerville's new residence is going up at a rapid rate. It will be a credit to himself and to the neighborhood.

A large number of shamrocks were worn on St. Patrick's day, as was most fitting. The Freshmen were especially interested.

We are glad to learn that Miss Fannie Wilson has entirely recovered from her recent illness, and is able to be out again.

Mr. T. J. Utley has removed his family back to the Hill from Pittsboro. He will run a shoe shop opposite the Eubanks Store.

The Cross chapter of St. Andrews Brotherhood will send delegates to the convention, which meets in Charlotte on May 9th. and 10th.

The many friends of Miss Kestler, who is visiting Miss Mason, will be glad to learn of her rapid convalescence from an attack of measles.

Rev. Mr. Hall of Greensboro preached an interesting sermon in the Presbyterian Church Sunday night.

His text was "Ye must be born again."

Mr. W. E. Lindsay has opened a livery stable near Patterson's Hotel. He will keep good stock, and guarantees satisfaction. Give him a call.

Mr. T. J. Wilson '94 contemplates going abroad this summer for study. He will probably visit the Italian cities, and then go to live in Greece.

Mr. Pritchard has begun his duties as Post Master, and is learning the ropes very rapidly. Mr. Kirkland is kindly giving him instruction and assistance.

Tramps infested the town last week, and caused some annoyance.

At last they were compelled to "move on" not finding suitable employment among the village industries.

Rev. D. J. Currie preached in Greensboro last Sunday.

Dr. K.P. Battle lectured in Charleston, before the Charleston Medical College, on March 18th.

Mr. Belleza, the dancing teacher, will be here next week. His class will be organized immediately after his arrival.

The young ladies have christened their new Society "F. O. I.", but will not tell any secrets. They meet on Fridays at 2 P. M. at Roberson's Hotel.

The Phi Delta Theta Fraternity has re-organized its chapter here with Messrs. Dockery, Askew, Hines, J. H. White, Cobb, Dolby and Rev. Mr. Schubert, as members.

Mr. Myers has charge of the Episcopal Church choir, and has roused much interest in the music for Easter. The "Te Deum" especially, is something grand.

We are glad to see considerable interest manifested in Golf. The Club has a very good membership now, and the members are beginning to appreciate the sport.

There will be an unusually large number of applicants for places as senior orators this year. It is a good sign, and creditable to the English department and Literary societies.

For the past week or so we have had entertainments and lectures in abundance, but they have come from the outside world. Why can not we have more from within, for instance lectures by members of the Faculty?

Bishop Rondthaler, of the Moravian Church, has been invited to deliver the Baccalaureate sermon to the Class of '96. The selection is a very wise one and the Class is to be congratulated in securing a minister of such prominence.

We are glad to hear of the success of W. H. Clendenin, who was a member of our Law School in '93 and '94. The Messenger of Emory, Texas, contains a very complimentary account of his defence of a man who was tried for murder.

The jury returned a verdict of manslaughter.

The Y. M. C. A. delegation, to the State Convention at Charlotte, are Messrs. Horne, Wray, J. S. Thomas, W. R. Webb, J. H. White, Brem, Eley, Hines, R. E. Coker and Stephens.

Special attention is given to the college work on Friday and on Monday there will be a conference of the Presidents of College Associations.

The Charlotte Observer announces the approaching marriage of Miss Lou Robertson, daughter of Dr. J. F. Robertson, of Charlotte, to Mr. E. B. Graham, ex. '96, on April 26th.

THE TAR HEEL wishes the young couple all success and happiness.
