

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. E. W. Myers, 95 is visiting friends on the Hill.

Judge McRae spent Sunday with Mr. R. S. McRae.

We are glad to learn Carpenter, '95, has a thriving school in Miss.

Just 61 days until Commencement! Verily the days are numbered.

Come out and hear Tom Dixon on "Fools"; or the School of Experience.

Mr. C. L. Lindsay's horse got "on a tear" last Saturday, and tore up a buggy.

Mr. Will Yearby was over from Durham Saturday to see the Oak Ridge game.

Mrs. Judge Shepherd is visiting her son, Mr. Browne Shepherd, at Mrs. McNider's.

Judge Shepherd was on the Hill Saturday and Sunday, returning to Raleigh on Monday.

Query. Who got the last piece of Algerian wool? Don't all the faculty speak at once.

Miss Bessie Henckle will be very much missed. She returned Monday to her home in Baltimore.

Mr. W. D. Carmichael is suffering with a badly cut finger. A barbed-wire fence was the offender.

The first game with LaFayette was cancelled on account of rain. The second was 18 to 9 in our favor.

The Literary Societies must be doing some important work. They were both in session until 11:30 Saturday.

Mr. Oldham, A.M. '95, of the Mebane High School, was on the Hill last week as usual. He came to see the Oak Ridge game.

Quite a number of students will spend Easter holidays in Greensboro and others will take "a day off" to visit home folks.

Do you know what the "S.P.J.G." is? A chapter has been organized here and is flourishing. Jilted Gentlemen only are eligible to membership.

Since Mr. Dixon's last appearance here there has been a general demand to have him again. He will return Apr. 15th. This is your chance.

Remember the Philosophical Club on Tuesday night. Some interesting papers will be read. The Club meets at eight o'clock in the English Room.

The many friends of Miss Jennie Patterson are pained to hear of her severe illness. She was compelled to come home from her studies at Salem Academy.

Mr. J. C. Eller will go to Harvard next year to continue his studies in Political Economy and the like. He will afterwards return here to study Law.

Rev. Dr. Whitehead of Salisbury preached in the Methodist Church Sunday morning and night, to large congregations. His plain forcible sermons have won for him many admirers and friends among the students especially.

Don't fail to see the Lehigh game. Mr. C. P. Collins, of Hillsboro, was on the Hill at the game with Lafayette.

Congressman Stroud held an informal reception in the post office last Saturday, and made some interesting remarks on Washington and the goings-on there.

Dr. Hume will lecture in Washington, D. C. on April 20th. before the National Congress of Religious Education. The theme assigned him is "Education in the family."

Mr. Herbert Bingham has been elected Principal of the Presbyterian High School at Mebane, where he is now teaching. This is quite an honor, and one which is worthily bestowed.

It is unfair to impose on Nature. Any one will agree to such a statement. Then why is the moon imposed on of late? Every time she should be shining, it is taken for granted that she is performing her mission.

The Kings Daughters of the village are making preparation for a supper about the middle of the month. It will probably be held in Memorial Hall and will be an affair.

The receipt will go to defray the expenses of the Convention which meets here in May.

The Old Tale.

Just a little moonlight,
Just a little girl,
Just a few soft glances,
Brain all in a whirl.
Just a little vowing
That ever you'll be true,
Just one kiss ecstatic
And one's in love—that's you.
Then next day the jeweler
Sells you just the thing;
Your last "brownies" given
For the diamond ring.
Just a little "kicking"
From that lovely girl,
Diamond ring has left you,
Weary with the world.

Tom Dixon Again.

On Wednesday night Apr. 15th., in the University Chapel, Mr. Dixon will give his lecture on "Fools", which is considered to be his best.

This is the last great lecture of the season and you can't afford to miss it.

A university has been organized at Indianapolis, Indiana, to be called the University of Indianapolis; Butler College of Indiana, the Indiana Dental College, the Medical College of Indiana and the Indiana Law School being formed into one institution.

At Amherst every man is required to undergo a physical examination every year, and a record is kept in the gymnasium.

At Yale there are at present twenty men in training for the bicycle squad.

(First Freshman) Was Robespierre and Shakespere brothers?
(Second Freshman) I expect they were. They both belonged to the Spere family.
