

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Swimming parties are "all the go" now.

Mr. Will Yearby was on the Hill last Saturday.

Dr. Hume will be home Saturday from Washington.

Mr. Adlai Osborne spent Saturday in Pittsboro.

They say Mr. D. B. Smith has entered "society."

Miss Iva Lyons of Durham, is visiting Miss Mary Roberson.

Miss Sue Hall of Wilmington is visiting Mrs. J. A. Hlmoes.

Mr. Erwin '99 has returned from a visit to his home in Asheville.

The thermometer reached 96 in the shade, several times this week.

Mr. Frank Stronach Ex. '95 was on the Hill several days last week.

Mr. Sherrod of Rocky Mount is the latest addition to the Law class.

THE T.V.R. HEEL is glad to hear of the improvement of Mrs. Baskerville.

Mr. J. S. Wray '97 is suffering with a crippled foot, not serious however.

Mr. T. M. Kirkland has bought Dr. London's house, and moved in this week.

The Dramatic Club speaks well of hospitable treatment of the Charlotte people.

Mr. L. E. Covington writes that he is at work, and will not return this term.

Mr. Lakes's mother was called away suddenly last week, by the news of her father's death.

Rev. Mr. Pruden of Durham, will preach in the Episcopal Church Sunday morning and night.

The Gymnasium has shut down on account of hot weather and the proximity of examination.

The many friends of Miss Jennie Patterson regret to hear of her continued serious illness.

Mr. T. A. Sharp will remain on the Hill during the summer. He is interested in the Normal and Law Schools.

The Hellenian Editors have sent off the manuscript to the publishers. It will be unusually interesting this year.

Ask "Governor" Rose why he left the class room so unceremoniously while the other boys were enjoying the joke.

Mrs. Calvin Williams with her three children are visiting at Prof. Gore's. Mrs. Williams is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Gore.

Mr. Fallow, wife, child and sister, of Durham, spent the day in the campus Sunday. They will return later to spend the summer.

The current University Magazine has a creditable article on our University, by Dr. Baskerville. One more chapter will follow.

Mr. Wescott Roberson and Hargrave Robbins are getting posted on mill affairs. The cotton mill business will probably claim both of them after graduation.

The Convention of the King's Daughters will be held here on May 16th.

Mr. H. S. Lake has returned from New York, where he went to attend the funeral of his grandfather.

The Dramatic Club has been invited to play in Raleigh on the 1st of May.

The Mebane High School played the Varsity on Wednesday. "Cap" Oldham's team was defeated by a score of 17 to 3.

Mr. Atkinson, who was once an assistant in the University, has been elected professor of Cryptogamic Botany in Cornell University.

The team leaves for Danville Friday and will play U. Va. the following day. We extend our heartiest congratulations.

The base ball teams were entertained at their residence by Dr. and Mrs. Ball on the afternoon of the 16th. The teams enjoyed it very much, and as usual got one on Grex. Ask him about the "Cuckoo."

Quite a number from here attended the "school break" at Damascus last Friday night. Pupils and teachers acquitted themselves well, and all had a pleasant time.

Mr. C. G. Yarborough, who has been in our electric plant, for the past year, has accepted a position in the shops of Westing House Co., Pittsburg, Penn.

Mr. W. E. Rollins '92 was shaking hands with old friends on the Hill this week. He has finished his seminary course at Yale, and is a full-fledged Episcopal clergyman.

The King's Daughters wish to express their sincere thanks to those who, by their kindness so effectually aided them in making a success of the lecture and entertainment on the evening of the 15th.

The law class is endeavoring to get some prominent men in the state to address them on the financial question, and the indications are that one of the ablest men in our state will be procured. The plan is to have an able representative to discuss each side of the problem.

Mr. E. P. Carr is in New York attending the annual convention of the Zeta Psi Fraternity.
