

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Mary Harris went to New York this week.

Skeat's nose has so far recovered that he is again in the push.

Mr. Devin, an old U. N. C. half back, played full for Greensboro.

Mr. Green, '00, of the Trinity episode fame, has re-entered College.

The Juniors are nervous. Psychology and Physics have been postponed.

Geo. Graham, '91, saw Wednesday's game with Greensboro Athletic Club.

Mrs. Lockett and daughter, of Salem, are visiting Mr. E. A. Lockett, '99.

Prof. Gore went Thursday to attend the Baptist Association at Morganton.

Mrs. Berkley has been on the Hill this week visiting her son, A. R. Berkley.

Mr. Caldwell, formerly of the Trinity eleven, was a member of Greensboro team.

Geo. Tate, ex '98, is on the Hill, and played a "mean" end for Greensboro Wednesday.

Messrs. Hanes and Alexander, of Trinity, spent Saturday and Sunday on the Hill.

The colored population of Chapel Hill had a McKinley torch light procession Monday night.

Mr. Earnest Graves, '00, fractured his collar bone in a football scrimmage sometime ago.

Mr. D. Eatman '97, has been sick all this week, but we are glad to note that he is improving.

The Law Class received Mr. W. Galloway, of Transylvania county, into their number this week.

Mr. Robert Douglas, son of the newly elected Supreme court justice, played one half back for Greensboro.

Dr. S. B. Nye, a New York eye specialist, has been in town this week, and, we are told, has done some good work.

Mr. J. Webb '98, is at present, afflicted with carbuncle on the neck, from which we wish him a speedy recovery.

Miss Julia Dewey, of Norfolk, was here to see the foot ball game last Wednesday. She returned to Durham the next day to the regret of her many friends in college.

Remember the series of evangelical meetings which begin next Wednesday. Also that it is Mr. S. M. Sayford, and not Layford, as published last week by the TAR HEEL, who is to conduct the services.

Dr. Hume left Wednesday morning to attend the marriage of a niece in Virginia. He was then to return by way of Morganton where the Baptist State Association was held, thence home on Saturday.

Registrar E. L. Harris returned Tuesday from Brinkleyville, N. C., where he had been called by the sad duty of attending the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Vincent. Mr. Harris and his friends have our sympathy in their sorrow.

Mr. Turner, '00, who was called home some time ago to attend the last illness of his grand-mother, has returned to resume his studies. He was a prominent candidate for the foot ball team before he was called away.

"What's the matter with Grex?" The Principal of Pantops Academy writes to Mr. W. J. Bellamy as follows:—We are greatly pleased with Mr. Gregory and are greatly indebted to you for sending him. He seems everything a man ought to be. The boys are devoted to him"

Prof. Harrington is absent from the Hill this week attending a meeting of the Southern educators held at Vanderbilt. In looking over the programme for this meeting we notice that Prof. Harrington is scheduled for a paper on "The Preparation of the Teacher for High School Work."
