We ask our readers to overlook the fact that the TAR HEEL has been somewhat late in appearing for the past two weeks. The delay has been unavoidable.

Judge Whitaker was on the Hill last Saturday and Sunday to visit his sons, Percy Whitaker, '98, and Spier Whitaker '00.

Capt. Allen, of the Senior team, will be prevented from playing in today's game with the Meds. by a very sore knee. His hard rushing will be missed by his men.

The TAR HEEL wishes to request those who frequent the Printing Office to stop reading the TAR HEEL proof or type in the galleys. It is private matter till given to the public and no one has a right to interfere with it.

We are pained to note the death of Thos. R. Ransom. He was a graduate of the University in the class with Dr. Alderman, a promising lawyer in the State and a loyal University man.

By an oversight the names of the best debaters in the Literary Societies for Saturday, November 7, were left out of last issue. The gentlemen were, for the Di., W. O. Cox, for the Phi., H. P. Harding. The best debaters for last week were W. S. Myers and E. L. Abner for the Di. and Phi. respective
