

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

H. S. Lake was in Raleigh last week.

Manager Carmichael returned from Richmond on Tuesday.

Metz, '00, spent Thanksgiving at his home in Wilmington.

Call at Johnson and Luther's restaurant if you want some taffy.

Dr. Hume preaches at the Baptist church tomorrow at 11 A. M.

Messrs. H. G., & R. Connor have returned from Wilson.

Bob Harris, '00, spent Thanksgiving in Roxboro.

His friends are glad to note the recovery of Mr. D. Eatman, '97.

Milton Elliott returned on Monday from a trip to his home in Wilmington.

Messrs. J. Graham and T. N. Webb, spent Thanksgiving in Hillsboro.

End-rush White stopped over in Graham on his way from Richmond.

Mrs. Harrington, mother of our accomplished Professor of Latin, is visiting her son.

John McKee stopped over at his home in Raleigh on the way back from Wilmington.

Worth McAllister, '95, and Lawrence McRae, ex '97, spent the early part of the week on the Hill.

Messrs. R. S. Busbee, J. H. Andrews, J. D. Whitaker, and Jack Hayes have returned from Raleigh.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Paul Collins, '00, has gone home sick. We hope he is not seriously ill.

Mr. E. S. Askew returned Monday from the annual convention of the Phi Delta Theta at Philadelphia.

Mr. F. J. Haywood went down to Raleigh on Monday for the purpose of consulting Dr. Lewis about his eyes.

Messrs. P. Gorrell, R. E. Follin, Clent Miller, Charlie Hill, Frank Miller and E. A. Lockett spent Thanksgiving in Winston.

Dr. Alderman was to deliver an address at Elon College Thursday night but was too unwell to go, so the appointment was deferred.

Quite a number of students spent Thanksgiving at home. More than usual, probably because the boys were not allowed to go to the foot-ball game at Richmond.

The public meeting of the "Westminister League" at the Presbyterian church on Sunday night was interesting and profitable to those who attended. May the League have success.

Mr. Massey, pastor of the Methodist church, goes, Tuesday, to attend the Annual Conference. Mr. Massey has served us faithfully for two years. We hope he will be returned to us.

Old Mr. Mason, who has been sick so long at the home of Dr. T. J. Wilson, died on Saturday night and was buried Sunday. Mr. Mason's condition appeared to be improving and he was able to be up a few days ago, but he was taken worse and did not again rally.

Prof. Holmes has again made the student body his debtor by doing a public spirited act. On Thursday morning an eight inch snow covered the ground, and Prof. Holmes sent his teams and driver with snow plow and cleaned the walks that lead to the Commons, recitation rooms and hotels. This was all done before the breakfast hour and the student heart was made glad. In behalf of the students we thank Prof. Holmes for his work.

Just now when one is hard pressed with work it is more than flesh and blood can patiently bear to go to the library and find that some inconsiderate person has "slipped" the reference book that one must have.

Books that are absolutely necessary to proper study in courses are thus taken and kept for weeks at a time, and the work of a whole class stagnated by the selfishness of one or two men. The librarian is absolutely powerless to stop this practice and there seems to be no remedy.

The slipping and tearing of the reading-room papers still goes merrily on, too, and we venture to guess that the same men are guilty of both misdemeanors.

The Record.

The University Record has made its appearance and we hope the student body will liberally patronize this publication. Its object is to more thoroughly keep the University before the alumni and people of the State, and to supply our friends with facts concerning our doings here.
