

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. R. H. Wright is out again after a protracted illness.

Prof. May was away from the Hill during the vacation.

Mr. Burton Craige attended the Raleigh German.

Prof. Butler spent the holidays at his home in Georgia.

Dr. and Mrs. Baskerville spent the holidays with friends in Raleigh.

Miss Annie Thomas went Monday to Lancaster, S. C. to enter school here.

Dr. Hume spent several days of the vacation visiting friends in Portsmouth, Va.

Messrs. A. D. McLean and J. M. Walker, both ex. '98, have returned to college.

Miss Mary Roberson, after spending the holidays at home, returned to the Normal on Monday.

President Alderman made a short visit to his old home in Wilmington during the holidays.

Instructor W. C. Smith visited his parents in Greensboro during the holidays.

Manager Carmichael spent a portion of the holidays visiting friends in Greensboro.

Prof. Cobb attended a meeting of the Geological Association in Washington, D. C. during the holidays.

A lattice fence has been placed around the Commons outhouses and adds greatly to the appearance of the place.

Mr. R. H. Graves of the TAREHEEL board is absent from the Hill with the Glee Club, of which he is manager.

Mr. P. C. Whitlock, who was called home early last fall by the death of his mother, has returned to resume his work.

Messrs. Nixon and Walker went up to Greensboro and spent a few days visiting the sister of the latter(?) during the holidays.

Miss Jennie Patterson, who was forced to leave Salem last spring on account of illness, returned on Monday to resume her studies.

Chapel Hill has witnessed two weddings during the Christmas holidays: Mr. R. A. Eubanks to Miss Lida Harris, and Mr. W. E. Lindsay to Miss Pearson.

The Power Company will supply wood to the students and townspeople. Good pine or oak wood delivered inside the Campus at $1.00 per load. In the village the cost will be 5 cts. extra for hauling.

Miss Annie Calhoun of Newbern spent the holidays with Miss Pickard. Miss Calhoun is a charming young lady and captured the heart of more than one young man that we know.

The affection of young alumni for Chapel Hill is strongly evidenced by the fact that Mr. R. G. Shannonhouse '96, who is studying for the Ministry in New York City, returned all the way to spend a few days with us.

The Power Company will renew the incandescent lamps for twenty-five cents if the old ones are returned, for thirty cents if this return is not made.

Chapel Hill During the Holidays.

To one who has all the pleasures and amusements of a Christmas at home in mind, the idea of spending the holidays in Chapel Hill might seem pretty tame; but really, if one is not too extravagant in his ideas of amusement, he will spend a very pleasant vacation in the village, as several young men who have tried it this time can testify.

There is always the library as a supreme and inexhaustible source of pleasure, though of course after the trying period of examinations a fellow does not feel like anything but the lightest reading. Then roller skating has been a favorite amusement this Christmas. The young ladies and gentlemen of the village, together with the students, have been skating almost every day and have had two masquerades at night. But the chief pleasure of many of the young men has been that afforded by the unlimited opportunity of being with "the fair" of Chapel Hill. Several "parties" have been given for the entertainment of the students, notably those given by Miss Mason, Miss Kirkland and the Misses Pickard. They are reported to have been very enjoyable indeed. All honor to those who endeavor to make life agreeable to the forlorn and unhappy of this world.

In all about forty students spent all or nearly all the vacation on the Hill.

The Red and Black commemorates its athletic record of the past season by appearing in the college colors.

Columbia is to have a new dormitory. It will cost, when complete, $1,000,000.
