Clubs.

This is the day of social as well as political and religious organizations, a fact, the truth of which is well proved by the numerous clubs constantly being formed here at the University. Old friends have assembled and in a systematic way joined themselves under the names of those schools or towns with which they have been connected.

On Tuesday last the Wilmington boys organized the "Wilmington Club." with Marsden Bellamy as President; Arthur Belden, Vice President; Ed. Wood, Secretary; Ed. McEachern, Historian; Milton Elliott, Toast Master.

The members are Belden, Bellamy, W., Bellamy, M., McEachern, E., McEachern, J., Wood, Metz, Elliott, Sykes, Branch, Hall, Chadburne, Canady, Green, T. W.

Again expressive of our numerous list of preparatory schools represented, we now have a "Pantops Club," the President of which is Mr. W. J. Bellamy; Vice-President F. B. Johnson; Sect., Elliott; Historian, Hall; Treas., Hume.

All the members are represented in the above officers.

The Winston-Salem Club.

Following up the recent "fad" of organizing clubs of the different sets of University boys representing larger towns and preparatory schools, a Winston-Salem Club has been founded with the following members.

R. E. Follin, President.
P. A. Gorrell, Vice-President.
J. K. Pfohl, Sec'y and Treas.

Oh wad some power the giftie gie us
To see ourselves as others see us,
But how would it be to see an ass
Whene'er we should a mirror pass.

If those who think they're "out of sight"
Could see themselves as others might,
Then maay would see fools, I trow,
Whene'er they to a glass did go.

A Wonerful Invention

Zoology teaches that the hairs of the head are hollow, and contain an oil that gives them life. In clipping the hair with scissors, this hollow is left open, and the hair loses its life-giving properties.

I have a Machine named the Singeing Machine, which removes the hair and at the same time closes up the hollow, causing the hair to retain its life-giving properties, and therefore stopping the hair from falling out or dying, and giving it a soft growth.

Call and examine this machine and have your hair singed.

Special attention given to dressing Ladies' hair. Cutting done with exquisite and artistic skill by the old University Barber of twenty years' experience.

The singing machine is highly recommended by scientists throughout the country.

Very Respectfully,
T. D. DUNSTAN,
Professor of Tonsorial Art.
