

PERSONAL.

Mr. Jones Fuller returned from Raleigh on Monday.

Mr. Carmichael returned from Greensboro Tuesday morning.

Mr. Stephens came back Tuesday to look after his business.

We are glad to note the recovery of Mr. Ed. Land, who was quite sick last week.

The travelling salesman of Rogers & McDowell has been in town for the past two days.

Why didn't that burglar take Sorrel's music box while he was at the business?

Caps and gowns have been finally adopted and will be the regular senior paraphernalia this year.

An autograph letter of General R. E. Lee has been added to the Library collection of historic relics.

Rev. R. E. Caldwell, of the class of '79, is holding a series of lectures at the Presbyterian church.

There is to be a debate in May between the Fresh and Soph members of the two literary societies.

Dr. Hume delivered several lectures in Smithfield last week and as usual they were attended by large and appreciative audiences.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Beckwith, of Washington, N. C. He was a member of the Law School several years ago.

Mr. John Cator, of Greensboro, will be here on the 18th, 19th, and 20th to show a handsome line of goods from C. M. Vanstory & Co. See "ad" at bottom of this column.

The best debaters in the Di. Society for the last two weeks were Messrs. W. S. Wilson and A. T. Allen. The best debaters for the last two weeks in the Phi. were Messrs. J. D. Parker and E. L. Abbott.

The Winston Graded School has established a monthly known as "The Record." It is published by the Senior Class and is a publication of which the school has just cause to be proud.

The Southern Inter-collegiate Debate was lately held at Tulane University, New Orleans. Most of the principal Southern institutions have entered, except the Universities of Virginia and N. C.

Y. M. C. A. Building

A meeting of the Freshman Class was held last week for the purpose of raising some money for the proposed Y. M. C. A. Building, and the sum of one hundred and eighty three dollars was subscribed.

This is much less than has been given by previous classes. The Class of '98 gave seventeen hundred and fifty dollars; '99 subscribed eleven hundred and eighty-five dollars. All preceding classes which have given anything, have gone higher than four hundred dollars.

Probably the Freshmen will open their pocket-books in due time; at least the Y. M. C. A. hopes so.

C. M. VANSTORY & CO.

The Leading Clothiers, hatters, and gents' furnishers of North Carolina, will have a line of Spring Samples on exhibition here on Mar. 18th, 19th, and 20th.

Fourth Faculty Lecture.

Dr. Hume delivered his lecture on "The Making of the English Bible" last night in Gerrard Hall. It was both entertaining and instructive throughout, and lasted about two hours.

The Doctor is always welcomed by the boys as a lecturer, for all know his reputation in this line both here and elsewhere. This lecture on the Bible has been highly complemented by several eminent scholars, who have seen the notes in prospective, and we may consider ourselves fortunate in having had the opportunity to hear it.

So far all these lectures have been great successes and have been attended by large audiences. It was a wise move on the faculty's part and we hope it will be made a permanent feature hereafter.

Mr. J. Webb, Jr., went to Hillsboro this morning.

Mr. Sam Lamb, our literary editor, has been sick for several days.

This is to celebrate the memory of the University Magazine, which died before it was born.

May it await a propitious regeneration at some more opportune time.

Mark Arnheim & Struse Bros.' nobby line of Spring samples have come. Call and see them.—N. C. Long & Bro.

You will find a beautiful lot of new Spring ties and Wilson Bros. Negligee Shirts at—N. C. Long & Bros.
