

PERSONAL.

Many A. & M. and Trinity boys saw the game on last Saturday.
Miss Rosamond May is still on the Hill.
Dr. Hume preached in Burlington last Sunday.
Mr. R. T. Gray, of Raleigh, was on the Hill Saturday.
Mr. Geo. Snow spent several days at Dr. Baskerville's this week.
Col. J. S. Carr, with two of his boys came over to see the game.
Mr. Stephen Bragaw, of Washington, N. C., has been on the Hill this week.
J. E. Alexander, '95, and now Private Secretary to the Governor, came up last week.
The University of Virginia has a schedule of thirty games for the present baseball season.
Mr. J. T. Thorne, who has been quite sick for some time, left for his home Wednesday. We hope he will soon be able to return.

President Alderman has been absent for the past few days. He was to have delivered lectures in Charleston and Wilmington on April 1st and 2nd.
Come out to the Dramatic Club next Friday night. Curtain will rise at 8:30. Tickets on sale at Yearby's.
The Wake Forest game will be played in Raleigh today. They played Virginia 3 to 10, so a good game may be expected.
Messrs. DeBerniere Whitaker, ex '93, and Perrin Busbee, ex '92, were here during the early part of the week, having stayed over after the game.
In our debate with Georgia in May, our representatives will discuss the affirmative side of the Swiss Initiative and Referendum question.
Mr. J. H. Buxton, formerly a member of our Medical School, has been elected president of the Senior Class in the Medical Department at University of Pennsylvania.
Dr. Battle's subject at his Sunday morning nine o'clock lectures will be for the rest of the session "Old Testament Characters." These talks will be very interesting and we advise one and all to attend.
Rev. T. N. Ivey, editor of the N. C. Advocate, will preach in the Methodist Church morning and night on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Wilson will preach to the children in the afternoon.

The great Brooklyn League Team will play the Varsity on Monday afternoon on the home grounds. Admission 50c. Everybody should come out and see one of the best professional teams in the United States.
Mr. Charlie Keerans, representing the firm of Leslie & Rogers, Charlotte, N. C., will be at Patterson's Hotel on April 5th, 6th, and 7th, with a complete line of clothing, golf and bicycle suits, furnishing goods, etc.
The Manager would be greatly obliged if you would pay up your TAR HEEL subscription. It is the first of the month and you ought to have the money, if you haven't. Whats the matter?

C. M. VANSTORY & CO.
The Leading Clothiers, Hatters, and gents' furnishers of North Carolina, will have a line of Spring Samples on exhibition here on Mar. 18th, 19th, and 20th.
R. H. GRAVES
PERCY WHITAKER Agents.

Staff Changes.

Mr. R. H. Sykes has been elected to fill Mr. T. L. Wright's place on the TAR HEEL board. Henceforth the editors will have departments as follows:
S. S. Lamb, associate editor; W. S. Myers, athletic editor; B. Craige, P. W. McMullan, and R. H. Sykes, news editors.
The board will be glad to receive outside contributions at any time, especially news items, as the editors may not be conversant with all affairs of public interest.

Exchanges.

Hugh Jennings is now coaching the University of Georgia team.
Lacrosse is a great game at Lehigh University. They employ a hired coach for their team.
We are in receipt of the Trinity Archive for March. It appears to be a very creditable magazine.
The Mustard and Cheese Dramatic Club, of Lehigh, is being coached by Mr. Daly.
The Alcalde of last week advertises the first performance by the University of Texas Dramatic Club. We are told that Miss Isabella Winston is a member of that organization.
The Reveille, of Louisiana State University, is a weekly which lets some of its columns perform the functions of a literary publication. We notice many learned articles in the last number.
Last week's College Topics had a very nice account of the ball game, and expressed much appreciation of North Carolina hospitality. Our boys have an enjoyable visit to Charlottesville this month.
