

PERSONAL.

Mr. Darius Eatman, 97 spent several days of the week at his home Oxford.

Mrs. Baker, of New York, mother of Mr. H. S. Lake '98, is in Chapel Hill as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ball.

Miss Adelaide Boylan of Raleigh, who has been visiting her niece Mrs. Askerville, has returned to her home.

Mr. Ralph H. Graves last Monday went to Durham on a business trip in the interest of the Dramatic Club.

Mr. Herbert Battle of Raleigh spent last Sunday in Chapel Hill visiting at Dr. Battle's.

Winston, Honeycutt and Tate will probably play on the Washington, N. C. team during the coming season.

Dr. H. V. Wilson returned from Wilmington on Sunday. Dr. Wilson went to look at the mammoth whale which was washed upon the beach several days ago.

Charlie Hill '99, Geo. Pond '99, and Stud Vaughn '00 accompanied the 'Varsity to Greensboro Wednesday and witnessed the second U. N. C.-U. Pa. game.

Rev. Mr. Winecoff, Rector of the Episcopal Church has returned from Buffalo Lithia Springs where he has been for the past month for his health. W. Winecoff will occupy his pulpit Easter morning.

Mr. McAlister, of the 'Varsity baseball, '95, witnessed the U. N. C.-U. Pa. game in Greensboro Wednesday, and is spending a few days on the Hill.

The alarm of fire was given on Thursday afternoon about half past four and a large crowd gathered quickly around Commons Hall where from beneath the eaves of the building the smoke was pouring in thick volumes. The fire was soon under control, however and extinguished. It originated in one of the dressing rooms and was due to accidental causes.

The 'Varsity Leaves Monday.

The 'Varsity team leaves Monday morning to play Lehigh at Winston, Yale at Danville, and Princeton at Greensboro, the first to be played on Monday, the second on Tuesday and the third on Wednesday.

They will be three good games, and lovers of base ball may look forward to exciting times. The team has gotten in good trim, altho' she did lose to Pennsy, and we know that the majority, if not all, of these games are coming our way.

So play ball, Carolina, as you can, and bring home for us these three games with which to credit our account. The record is somewhat evenly balanced, just now, with four won and four lost.

Geological Trip.

Friday morning at six o'clock Prof. Collier Cobb and Messrs. Weil '97, Edgerton '97 and Andrews '97 left for Stems and Providence on the Tar River where they will examine the coal beds and the surrounding country from a scientific standpoint. The party will walk the greater part of the trip, going about 50 miles on foot. Several of the party will return to the Hill on Sunday, but others will wend their way homeward.

New Lights on the Campus.

Prof. Gore announced on Tuesday that new lamps had been ordered and that in a short while the campus would be brilliantly lighted at night. The announcement was greeted with great applause by the class present. Some time ago the TAR HEEL suggested in its editorial columns that this should be done, and we rejoice that those in authority have seen the need of these lights.

Mr. White, of Tucker and Co. of Raleigh, was here Wednesday.

Rev. Jesse Cunningham, a prominent Methodist divine, was in Chapel Hill several days of the past week.
