

HERE AND THERE.

Joe Graham was on the hill a few days ago.

Only twenty-five cents admission for to-morrow's game.

Mr. Usry was the best debater in the Philanthropic Society last Saturday night.

Dr. Wilson has moved into the house on Main Street formerly occupied by Dr. Alderman.

Messrs. Kornegay, Med., and Pridgen, Med., have been initiated into the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

J. D. Heathman, Med. '97, returned this week to take the second year's course in the Medical Department.

Francis Gudger, ex-'98, has gone to Panama with his father Hon. H. A. Gudger, who is Consul General to that country.

H. E. C. Bryant, '95 of the Charlotte Observer was on the hill Sunday visiting his brother, Mr. P. A. Bryant, a member of '01.

A reception was given at the Manse last night by the ladies of the Presbyterian church to the students of that denomination.

Mrs. Pond and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pond of Plattsburg, N. Y., are stopping at Mrs. Graves', the guests of Mr. Geo. Pond.

Another young lady has entered the University.—Miss Lulie Watkins from Millbank, Va. She will make a specialty of Mathematics.

In the absence of Rev. Mr. Currie on next Sunday night, the Westminster League will conduct a public meeting at the Presbyterian Church.

The fence around the athletic park has been undergoing repairs for the past week, which were very much needed. Many planks had been torn off and the fence was entirely down in some places.

The remains of Mrs. Jno. Watson, one of the oldest inhabitants of Chapel Hill, were brought home from Morganton Insane Asylum yesterday for interment.

The class of 1901 met last Tuesday to organize a foot ball team. After the usual excitement, as such an occasion affords, Bellamy was elected captain and Whitehead manager. No bones were broken.

The Winston Sentinel in a recent issue chronicles the fact that Mr. J. M. Carson recently passed thro Winston "on his way from Sparta to the Nashville Exposition."

It is a noticeable fact that nearly all the recitation rooms are crowded to their utmost seating capacity. In several cases chairs have to be brought in from the laboratories. One professor was obliged to advise ten men in his class to change their course and take something else because his room would not accommodate the class. This state of things certainly does emphasize the need of new and larger recitation rooms. We have heard of "Alumni Building." When shall we see it? If the Alumni knew how much this building is needed, probably we should soon have a corner stone ceremony.

Y. M. C. A. Leaders for Next Week.

Monday.—Prof. Gore.
Tuesday.—J. G. Crawford.
Wednesday.—H. E. D. Wilson.
Thursday.—J. B. Massey.
Meetings in the Chapel at 7:15 p. m.

Politics and rumors of politics. The three upper classes have held class elections during the past week.

V. L. Brown of Archer, Florida, who played centre rush on the Guilford college foot ball team last season, has entered the senior class.

J. A. McDaniel, representing M. Dowell and Rogers of Winston was, on the Hill this week displaying his line of goods.

Mr. Will Borden ex-99 of Goldsboro, who attended Columbia University during the past year, was on the "Hill" a few days this week, the guest of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Two young ladies from Virginia have opened correspondence with members of the faculty, in regard to entering the University. Also a young lady from Mass. who formerly attended the Harvard Annex, is corresponding with Professor Cobb concerning advanced courses in Geology.
