THE MEDS VS. JUNIORS.

[Concluded from first page.]

Williams R. makes 5, Bryson 5, (Tate is disqualified for unnecessary tackling and the Meds. are given 10 yards on a foul tackle). Both Bryson and Kornegay fail to gain. Kornegay can't make it, and the ball goes over.

The Juniors gain 5 by Davis, 5 again and Pearson tries the line for 1½, then 2½, but can't make the necessary 5 yards and the ball is the Meds.

Bryson tries right end for 5 yards, Kornegay can't get around left end, but on second trial gains 5. Bryson fails and the ball goes over on downs.

Davis in a successful revolving mass play makes 15 yards. (Hume substituted for Donnelly) Hume gains 5, Davis 2 and Hume 10. The revolving mass is put to test again but Wright tackles quickly and Davis fails to gain. Hume is tackled back of line and loses 4 yards; a fumble gives the Meds. the ball.

Kornegay dives for 3½, but the whistle sounds and the ball is left in the centre of the field, neither side having scored.

A Wonderful Invention.

Zoology teaches that the hairs of the head are hollow, and contain an oil that gives them life. In clipping the hair with scissors, this hollow is left open, and the hair loses its life-giving properties.

I have a Machine named the Singeing Machine, which removes the hair and at the same time closes up the hollow, causing the hair to retain its life-giving properties, and therefore stopping the hair from falling out or dying, and giving it a soft growth.

Call and examine this machine and have your hair singed.

Special attention given to dressing Ladies' hair. Cutting done with exquisite and artistic skill by the old University Barber of twenty years' experience.

The singeing machine is highly recommended by scientists throughout the country.

Very Respectfully,
T. D. DUNSTAN,
Professor of Tonsorial Art.

The Jim-Jam Ring of the Jou-Jous

AN ARABIAN LEGEND.

Translated from the Arabic.

Far off in the waste of desert sand,
The Jim-jam rules in the Jou-jou land;
He sits on a throne of red-hot rocks,
And moccasin snakes are his curling locks;
And the Jou-jous have the conviction fits
In the far-off land where the Jim-jam sits—
If things are nowadays as things were then.

Allah il Allah! Oo-aye! Amen!

The country's so dry in Jou-jou land
You could wet it down with Sahara sand,
And over its boundaries the air
Is hotter than 'tis—no matter where:
A camel drops down completely tanned
When he crosses the line into Jou-jou land—

If things are nowadays as things were then.

Allah il Allah! Oo-aye! Amen!

A traveller once got stuck in the sand
On the fiery edge of Jou-jou land;
The Jou-jous they confiscated him,
And the Jim-jam tore him limb from limb;
But, dying, he said: "If eaten I am,
I'll disagree with this Dam-jim-jam!
He'll think his stomach's a 'Hoodoo's den!"
Allah il Allah! Oo-aye! Amen!

Then the Jim-jam felt so bad inside,
It just about humbled his royal pride.
He decided to physic himself with sand,
And throw up his job in the Jou-jou land.
He descended his throne of red-hot rocks,
And hired a barber to cut his locks:
The barber died of the got-em-again.
Allah il Allah! Oo-aye! Amen!

And now let every good Mussulman
Get all the good from this tale he can:
If you wander off on a Jamboree,
Across the stretch of the desert sea,
Look out that right at the height of your booze

You don't get caught by the Jou-jou-jous!
You may, for the Jim-jam's at it again.
Allah il Allah! Oo-aye! Amen!
