

HERE AND THERE.

A dozen new chairs have been placed in the library.

Miss Katherine Sharp, of Portsmouth, Va., who has been visiting at Dr. Hume's, returned home Friday morning.

The Burden Bearers' Circle of the King's Daughters gave an oyster supper at Patterson's Hotel Friday night, which passed off quite pleasantly.

Mr. A. A. Shuford, Jr., '00 left last Thursday for his home in Hickory, N. C. He will not return to the University but will pursue a business course at Pougkepsi., N. Y. after Christmas.

The Dissecting Hall is being enlarged and repainted. Another room, 16x32 feet has been added to the old, making it twice as large as formerly. When completed it will add much to the looks of that gloomy corner of the campus.

Another landmark has been removed. This time it is the old shed over the well. It will be replaced by a more handsome structure and the old one will be moved to the well near the New East building. One by one they pass away—landmarks of the old University—to give way to the innovations of a new era.

Fall Inter-Society Debate.

The Junior-Soph. debate between the Dialectic and Philanthropic societies has been arranged for with the exception of the final settlement of the date.

The query is, Resolved: that Russia will eventually control Europe. Messrs. J. S. Shaw and T. G. Pearson of the Di. will maintain the affirmative; Messrs J. M. Sitterson Jr. and D. P. Parker of the Phi. will debate the negative.
